SPECIAL NOTICE

When ordering, give name in full, together with post office, county, and state; also express or freight office if different from post office.

Orders should specify the exact titles or serial numbers as given in this list.

We handle our own publications only, and therefore cannot fill orders for books of other publishers.

Books ordered on regular account are not subject to return unless ordered by mistake which is promptly brought to our attention.

If books are wanted for first introduction, that fact should be clearly stated and the name of the school, together with that of the Superintendent or Principal, should be given.

Remittances should be made by draft, postal or express money order, or registered letter, as may be most convenient.

All orders should be accompanied by remittances, unless customers desire to open an account, in which case we expect satisfactory New York City, or bank, reference, as to financial standing and promptness in meeting obligations.

POLITICAL CYCLOPÆDIA

Lalor—The Political Cyclopædia.

Edited by JOHN J. LALOR.

Every one who wishes to think, speak, and act intelligently upon the great questions of the day needs this work, written by the most eminent specialists in this country and Europe; e. g., DAVID A. WELLS discusses the Tariff and Tariff Legislation from the standpoint of the free-trader, and D. H. MASON from the point of view of the protectionist. E. L. GODKIN writes of Office-Holders, Prof. ALEXANDER JOHNSTON the articles on the Political History of the United States, DORMAN B. EATON of Civil Service Reform, Pres. D. C. GILMAN of Universities, SIMON STERNE of Railroads, Pres. F. A. WALKER of Public Revenue and Wages, EDWARD ATKINSON of Banks, JOHN J. KNOX of the Currency, etc., THOMAS M. COOLEY, President Interstate Commerce Commission, of The Bar, Law of Corporations, etc., HORATIO C. BURCHARD, ex-Director of the Mint, of Coinage, Gold, Silver, etc.

Of the multitude of cordial endorsements of the Cyclopædia received from prominent men in all parts of the country, the following are fairly representative:

GEORGE F. EDMUNDS writes: "A well-arranged and useful book of reference."

Prof. DAVID SWING says: "The three large volumes seem like foundation stones of our world. The most fundamental terms are defined and their import discussed. Events which acted as causes or come as results of society are to be found in this massive collection. These books, like a radius, sweep around the circle of political knowledge."

JAMES G. BLAINE writes: "I use it almost daily for reference, and regard it as a model."

THOMAS M. COOLEY writes: "An excellent work, convenient for any one to have, and invaluable to a student of the Political Sciences or of American History."

J. C. BANCROFT DAVIS writes: "The work will materially help to make better citizens and more intelligent voters of the young men into whose hands it will go and who are to control our destinies."

The Atlanta Constitution says: "It is doubtful indeed if a more important work of reference has ever been prepared."

The New York Nation says: "A timely and valuable aid to political education. We cannot withhold our warm commendation of the industry and discrimination of the editor, and the enterprise of the publishers."

The publishers have just prepared a 16-page pamphlet descriptive of this great work, which they will send free to any one who wishes to know about it.

It is published in three superb volumes, averaging one thousand pages each, and sold by subscription at the following prices:

Cloth. 3 vols. Per vol..... 5 00
Sheep. 3 vols. Per vol..... 6 00
Half Morocco. 3 vols. Per vol..... 7 00

† A new edition of The Church Hymnary, copyrighted in 1900, and designated on the title-page as the Twentieth Century Edition, has just been published. Orders for the Hymnary should state clearly which edition is wanted.

Please bear in mind the fact that we publish two different Psalters; one by Dr. Van Dyke, and one by Dr. Smith. In ordering either of the above books "with Psalter," it is necessary to state which Psalter. Delay in having orders for the Church Hymnary filled may be avoided if dealers will give the name and location of the Church in which the books are to be used.

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

537 C. M.

JESUS, these eyes have never seen
That radiant form of thine;
The veil of sense hangs dark between
Thy blessèd face and mine.

2 I see thee not, I hear thee not,
Yet art thou oft with me;
And earth hath ne'er so dear a spot
As where I meet with thee.

3 Like some bright dream that comes unsought
When slumbers o'er me roll,
Thine image ever fills my thought,
And charms my ravished soul.

4 Yet though I have not seen, and still Must rest in faith alone,
I love thee, dearest Lord, and will,
Unseen, but not unknown.

2 ITALIAN HYMN 6. 6. 4. 6. 6. 6. 4. FELICE GIARDINI

2 Come, thou Incarnate Word,
Gird on thy mighty sword,
Our prayer attend;
Come, and thy people bless,
And give thy word success:
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend!

3 Come, Holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear,
In this glad hour:
Thou who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power!

4 To the great One and Three,
Eternal praises be
Hence, evermore:
His sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore!

MONARCH BOOK COMPANY

121-127 Plymouth Place

CHICAGO

TO THE TRADE

It is with considerable pride that we announce our removal to our new home, 121-123-125-127 Plymouth Place.

We have, in this new, thoroughly fireproof building, constructed especially for the purpose, over 110,000 square feet of space, filled with the most approved modern machinery for the making of books rapidly and economically.

During the past year we have added to our line a great many specialties in cloth, paper and board bound books that we have every reason to believe will prove ready and profitable sellers. We market our publications through our own representatives, thus giving our customers the advantage of low prices and of dealing direct with the manufacturer.

We thank you for your patronage in the past and ask your further commands, with the full assurance that we are safe in promising prompt and satisfactory service.

Very respectfully,

MONARCH BOOK COMPANY.

GEMS OF MODERN WIT AND HUMOR

INTRODUCTION AND STORIES BY ROBERT J. BURDETTE

The masterpieces of the best humorous writers, speakers, cartoonists and story tellers. This is positively the best and most complete library of wit and humor ever published. Every one of the world's great humorists is represented by his best work. America leads the world in wit and humor, as it does in almost everything else, and special attention has been given to the wit and humor of famous Americans. More famous authors than any other book. Illustrations by famous cartoonists. This volume contains about 600 extra large pages, from new type. The illustrations are new and superb. The paper is made especially for this book, and is of a velvet finish, guaranteed not to injure the eyes of the reader. Size, 7 by 9. Weight, 2½ lbs. Bound in cloth, with inlaid portrait of Mark Twain...$1.50

A BUNDLE OF SUNSHINE

By PRESS WOODRUFF, THE ARKANSAS HUMORIST

An avalanche of mirth. A barrel of smiles, hearty laughs and masterly character delineations—a barrel of oil for the troubled waters of life—a barrel of healing balm for wounded soul—a barrel of cement for cracking hearts. The truthful reminiscences of a peregrinator, whose life has been one of calamities, hard luck, accidents and fun. The magnificent volume contains nearly 400 handsome pages, embellished with over 100 humorous illustrations and photographs taken from life. Size, 6 inches wide, 9 inches long. Bound in cloth, humorous design in gold and inks.....$1.75

SAMANTHA AT SARATOGA

BY JOSIAH ALLEN'S WIFE

The funniest book ever written. A dialect story true to life. This celebrated character study occupies a distinct class in the world of wit. Its production at once placed the author in the first rank of American humorists. A hearty laugh in every line. Written amid the whirl of fashion at Saratoga. It takes off its follies, flirtations, low neck dressing, dudes, pug dogs, the water craze, tobogganing, etc., in the author's inimitable mirth-provoking style. The illustrations by "Opper" are just killing. An ever fresh and inviting feast of merriment. 600 pages printed on superior paper, profusely illustrated by F. Opper of Puck. Extra fine cloth, gilt side and back stamp. Elite edition. 1,000,000 copies of this book have been sold.....$2.00

THE NEW GIANT CYCLOPEDIA AND ATLAS OF THE WORLD

By K. L. ARMSTRONG

96 Color Plates

The most popular reference book ever published. 1,000,001 figures and facts, 96 pages of colored maps, charts and plates, 2,500 useful tables, recipes, trade secrets, etc. A score of books in one volume. A marvel of condensation. This book settles more arguments and answers more of the questions and problems of every-day life than any other Cyclopedia ever published, whether in one or in thirty volumes. "The era is fast approaching when no writer will be read by the majority except those who can effect for bales of manuscript what the hydrostatic screw performs for bales of cotton—condense into a period what before occupied a page."—Cotter. Besides, there are hundreds of accurate and original tables which will come handy for every man at some time in his life, and which are simply invaluable for those engaged in any trade or profession. It is in the tabular form that information can be most compactly presented. Many single tables of the many hundreds in this book, occupying but very little space, required weeks of labor in preparation. There are tables for almost every trade and profession, and most of them were prepared or revised with the assistance of practical men actively engaged in the calling for which the information is most useful. The book is invaluable for all classes and conditions of people—for the educated as a book of reference; for the unlearned as a storehouse of knowledge; for the workers in all the callings of life as a helping companion. No trade or profession has been overlooked. The book is equally useful in the home, the study, the office and the workshop. Business and professional men keep it constantly at their elbow. Travelers the world over carry it in their handiest satchel. Workmen and mechanics keep it convenient in their tool-chests. Farmers find it invaluable. This book contains over 500 pages, illustrated, with appropriate engravings, colored maps, charts and plates. Bound in cloth, handsome side and back stamp.....$1.50

FAMOUS ART REPRODUCED

A collection of artotype reproductions of noted paintings and sculpture by artists of all nations. In selecting the celebrated masterpieces which adorn the pages of this volume the publishers were guided by the laudable desire to present, in an easy accessible form, the best examples of the modern art world. The choice was therefore left to a jury of competent judges, which included noted art commissioners from every country represented. Each picture described by Michael Straus, the celebrated critic. A portfolio containing eight superb pictures of nude subjects free with each volume. The reproductions are printed from the original plates, obtained by the perfected artotype process, and are much clearer than the ordinary illustration which is printed from an electrotype of the original plate. The new process employed will be found to have retained color value to an unusual degree. This sumptuous volume contains 480 large pages, printed on enameled paper, each page opening on a full page engraving. Size, 12 inches wide, 15 inches long. Bound in cloth, stamped in gold and ink. YOUNG PEOPLE'S CLASSICS

ROBINSON CRUSOE

BY DANIEL DEFOE

Robinson Crusoe stands alone as the book of books in its power to fascinate, interest and elevate the youthful mind. It has greatly assisted in promoting the growth of that manly, truthful, self-relying and humane spirit, by the exercise of which the English-speaking races have made such rapid strides in civilization. Defoe is entitled to rank as the author of the most entertaining and truth-like fiction that has ever been or perhaps ever will be produced. Most people are familiar with this good old story, but it has lost none of its popularity by age; on the contrary, the past century and a half has added to, and on this account we have gone to considerable expense and trouble in publishing this excellent edition, which is beautifully illustrated, from wood engravings. It contains 497 pages and 100 illustrations, making it one of the handsomest editions ever published for the money. Durably bound in fine cloth, stamped in inks.....$1.25

THE SWISS FAMILY ROBINSON

BY WILLIAM H. G. KINGSTON

Every boy and girl should have one of these books. It is an intensely interesting book, showing how a shipwrecked family, without any food, and apparently no sustenance, live comfortably and become accustomed to the thrilling adventures incident to life in an uninhabited and unexplored land. The ingenious contrivances which necessity compelled them to resort to makes very interesting reading for young folks, as well as being very instructive, and teaches well the lesson that perseverance and determination will succeed against the most adverse and trying circumstances. On account of this book being such a universal favorite, we have made this an especially handsome edition. It contains 323 pages and 105 illustrations. Fine cloth binding, gold back and side, stamped.....$1.25

THE PILGRIM'S PROGRESS

BY JOHN BUNYAN

The most striking allegory ever written. Pilgrim's Progress gives a description of the innumerable difficulties, pitfalls and temptations which one attempting to lead a thoroughly Christian life meets in this world. It shows how it is necessary to be always on guard and to place one's trust in Christ constantly in order to obtain eternal life. Every condition is portrayed so vividly and with such directness that it is the strongest, morally elevating and helpful book ever printed except the Bible, and from a literary standpoint alone it is generally regarded as one the best hundred books in the literature of the world. Every person, young and old, should read it. There is no other book better adapted to presentation purposes. Containing 110 illustrations. Bound in fine cloth. Back and side stamped in gilt and colors.....$1.25

POEMS FOR CHILDHOOD

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY

OR, THE CIVIL WAR AS SEEN BY A BOY

By A. R. WHITE

The Blue and the Gray tells of the great war as seen from the camp and saddle. It is not gathered from the war records, but from the battlefield. It differs from other war books. It is not filled with dry statistics. There is not a dry page in it. A true story of camp life, of daring adventure, foot-sore marching, heart-rending battles, of patriotism. with all the hopes and fears, the daring and heroism, sorrows and trials of a young soldier battling for his country. It tells the story of camp life, of battle scenes, of farewell requests, hairbreadth escapes, the picket charges, the rough rides. Contains 416 large pages, illustrated by Frank Beard, America's favorite artist, with 150 war photographs and magnificent water-color frontispiece. Durably and beautifully bound in cloth, ornamented with a strirring design representing Peace uniting the Blue and the Gray. Size, 8x10...$1.75

BEAUTIFUL STORIES THAT NEVER GROW OLD

WRITTEN IN SIMPLE LANGUAGE BY REV. JOHN RUSK, PH. D.

The bible written anew along the lines of modern Christian thought. Tales of the heroes and heroines who lived and wrought in the days of long ago, directed by divine wisdom. It tells us how nations grew; how a single family developed into millions. It tells the story of the first emigrant, the first tent builder, the first inventor and the first astronomer, and it tells it in such a way as to fascinate the reader from the very beginning to the end. A book is worth nothing if it does not make men and women better. The old, old story has always done that. No description can do justice to the exquisite loveliness of the original drawings and reproductions of celebrated paintings with which the book abounds. Three hundred superb illustrations printed on half-tone paper. The book contains over 450 pages. Size 8x10 inches. LITTLE FOLKS' HOME AMUSEMENTS

For boys and girls from 6 to 12 years of age. Every boy and girl has a taste for work, he or she is trying to dig out tools from whatever source they can and make something. It is to this class of boys and girls that America looks for its most successful business men and women in the walks of life. The new education. With the hope of instructing as well as amusing, we here offer a book which suggested itself to the writer while watching the little folks in Colonel Parker's "School of Education," and noting the enthusiasm they manifested in originating ideas. The plan can be carried on with great success whether in the home, out of doors, or in the school room. This book is designed to teach drawing, language, color, taste, form imitation, originality, numbers. Trades. Carpentry work, bookbinding. The study of nature. Figure work, clay modeling, embroidery, etc., etc. This book contains about 200 pages. 16 ten-color lithographs, 16 sepia lithographs, and numerous other pictures. Size, 8 inches wide, 10 inches long. Bound in genuine cloth, printed in 7 colors and gold.....$1.00

LITTLE FOLKS' NATURAL HISTORY

BY LIDA BROOKS MILLER.

Portrays the habits and homes of wild and domestic animals of all lands. Richly and appropriately illustrated. Its purpose is to teach young people lessons about animals which may be studied with profit. When the circus is in town the children have eyes only for the elephant, giraffe, tiger and all other animals. They want to make friends with all of them. For this reason this new book is just what is wanted. Boys and girls alike will fairly devour the interesting stories in this volume. The many illustrations prepared from life, at great expense. by leading artists, show wild animals in their haunts, and the beautiful six full-page colored pictures are alone worth the price of the book.

The book contains 296 superb pages, printed from clear, large type, with over 200 illustrations, including six full-page colored engravings. Size: 8 inches wide, 10 inches long.

Bound in cloth, lithographed in gold and colors..... $1.00

ROBINSON CRUSOE

IN WORDS IN ONE SYLABLE.

A new departure in Juvenile Books. Robinson Crusoe, written by DeFoe, will ever be immortal. It has been translated in every known language, and still, after a lapse of 300 years, is the most popular fable known. Great expense of time and money has been used in reducing the original language into words of one syllable, but this enables a boy who can read at all, to read this book for himself. The book is divided into two parts. Part first, contains Robinson Crusoe. Part second, fascinating stories written expressly for this volume.

With nearly 300 handsome pages, printed from large, clear type, and illustrated with myriad illustrations—including many pictures in eight colors. Size: 8 inches wide, 10 inches long. Bound in lithographed cloth cover..... $1.00

RIP VAN WINKLE

FAMOUS FAIRY TALES

And other wonderful classics of childhood retold for our boys and girls of today. The old-fashioned fairy tales by Grim and others are away the most popular ever written, but generally speaking, the language has been too difficult for children to read; consequently, at the expense of time and money, we have had the language reduced into words of one syllable, or nearly so as possible, thus making it intelligible to the very youngest of children. The following are among some of the well-known stories in this book: "Cinderella and the Crystal Slipper," "The Wolf and the Fox," "Babes in the Woods," "The House that Jack Built," "Jack, the Giant Killer," "Little Red Riding Hood," "Jack and the Bean Stalk," "The Three Bears," etc., etc. The cream of a hundred classics condensed into one volume, making a total of 30 carefully selected "Tales" from the world's juvenile fairy lore. Any one of these stories, when purchased separately, cost from 25 to 50 cents each. To purchase them all separately bound requires an outlay of from $5 to $8. These "Tales," published in one volume of 288 pages, set in new type, printed on fine paper, with 8 beautiful colored plates. Also many attractive pictures throughout the text illustrating the stories. Size, 8 inches wide, 10 inches long. Bound in heavy board, lithograph cover, cloth back.... .....$1.00

CHILD'S HISTORY OF ANIMALS

A picture gallery of the animal kingdom, full of life and animation, drawn from nature by the world's best artists. TO THE BOOKSELLER

F you have not already sold my line of net price publications with no discount whatever except to the trade, do you not think this would be a good time to begin? While other publishers are just awaking to the absolute necessity of ensuring to booksellers a guaranteed net price, I have consistently adhered to this method of pricing my books since 1891 — (when I published my first volume) and have never found reason to regret it.

The line now represents nearly two hundred titles and is known not only in America but abroad as being of an unique order of excellence. All books are put up with outside wrappers, in separate slide cases, a small attention to detail the dealer will appreciate who places a stock order.

It may be taken as a well-known fact that there is a saving remnant of high-class book-buyers in every city. Hence it follows that attention once directed toward your carrying my publications in stock would undoubtedly result in your favour as well as mine. In other lines of business the sale of a specialty has long been recognized as a valuable aid in extending one's sphere of influence. That THE MOSHER BOOKS are a specialty some of the largest houses in this country have not failed to discover.

As a practical suggestion I would say begin with my best sellers, to wit: The Vest Pocket Series, Brocade Series, Old World Series, and Lyric Garland. A new and complete descriptive CATALOGUE OF THE MOSHER BOOKS with trade terms and discounts on application.

MISCELLANEOUS

31 VOLUMES

MISCELLANEOUS is the heading under which Mr. Mosher has brought together such of his publications as from variety of format and still greater variety of subject would seem impossible to include in any special series. Mr. Mosher's idea of a Series is that it should have some consistency of plan; a confused assembly of all sorts of books may be commercially profitable, but from every other standpoint is æsthetically bad and intellectually depressing! These thirty-one Miscellaneous volumes are admirable on grounds peculiar to themselves, and it is our intention to offer from year to year a few pleasing examples of choice book-making under this head which will be at once unique in style and moderate in price.

THE BIBELOT

THE BIBELOT. A reprint of poetry and prose for book-lovers, chosen in part from scarce editions and sources not generally known. The Bibelot is in shape a small quarto (4 1-2 x 6), choicely printed on white laid paper, uncut edges, and done up in old-style blue wrappers. It is issued monthly, and has from 24 to 32 pages of text. In some numbers 40 pages or more have been given, forming a volume of 400 pages, at least, each year.

THE BIBELOT SERIES

10 VOLUMES

THE BIBELOT SERIES is modelled on the Aldine format, and like those early books of the great Italian printers, each volume is printed in Italic type throughout. It is the only series of Italic books ever printed in this country, and the few copies of these three volumes remaining should be secured while they are still to be had of the publisher.

I. SONGS OF ADIEU: A Little Book of "Finale and Farewell." 1893.

II. OLD WORLD LYRICS: A Little Book of Translations. 1893.

III. RUBAIYAT OF OMAR KHAYYAM. Rendered into English Verse by Edward FitzGerald. 1894.

Eight copies remain, at $4.00 net.

ENGLISH REPRINT SERIES

3 VOLUMES

THE ENGLISH REPRINT SERIES was Mr. Mosher's first attempt at book-making. In it his only specimens of large paper copies are to be found. Two of these volumes (the first and third), for their splendidly proportioned margins, stand in a class apart; whereon the art of the illuminator can find ample room for exquisite display. The edition was as follows: 10 large paper copies on Japan vellum, post, 4to, numbered from 1 to 10, signed by the publisher. 40 large paper copies on Van Gelder paper, post, 4to, numbered from 1 to 40. 400 small paper copies an Van Gelder paper, post, 8vo, numbered from 1 to 400.

I. MODERN LOVE. By George Meredith. With foreword by E. Cavazza. 1891. Out of print.

II. THE CITY OF DREADFUL NIGHT. By James Thomson. With introduction by E. Cavazza. 1892. Out of print.

III. THE GROWTH OF LOVE. By Robert Bridges. With a brief and general consideration by Lionel Johnson. 1894. A few large paper copies remain, at $10.00 net.

THE MANUAL OF PRAYERS.

"We have certainly had no stint of prayer books before the appearance of this one; but had there not been room for another it is certain that the Fathers of the Third Plenary Council would not have ordered one to be prepared and published. It was partly because of this very plentifulness that such action was taken, for many editions, with all kinds of titles, have been put upon the market, some of them even without episcopal approbation, some still bearing the imprimatur of bishops long since dead, and some even, sad to say, appearing with a supposed approval which they had not received. A great many, even of the old editions, were exact reprints of foreign books that contained matter not suitable for this country, and ignoring matters that should be found in every American prayer book. Besides, in most cases, the ruling of the authorities in Rome regarding the printing of portions of the Mass and other parts of the liturgy in Latin was not complied with; and several publishers, in their eagerness to outdo rivals, inserted much matter that should have no place in a prayer book, as having no reference to any service or function in the church, but belonging rather to a work of pious reading or instruction. Many prayer books were thus made far too bulky for general use.

"It was with a view of correcting these abuses that the Manual before us was ordered to be prepared, and the priest to whom the work was entrusted has performed his duty faithfully and well. Having, in the first place, used nothing that was of doubtful authority and utility, he then submitted proof sheets of his book to the inspection of all the Bishops of the country, and their views on every point he has strictly complied with. It has the imprimatur of Cardinal Gibbons, the Primate of the United States, and of the late Archbishop Corrigan, of New York, who had special supervision of the work, and the endorsement of the entire American Hierarchy.

"Beginning with an abstracted calendar of feasts celebrated in the United States, which is followed by an abridgement of Christian doctrine, it contains not only various forms of morning and evening prayers, the devotions at Mass, instructions for Confession and Communion, the Way of the Cross, the Rosary and Scapular, as well as on the Sacraments, devotions for the sick and dying, etc., but also the Ordinary and Canon of the Mass, the Vesper service (followed by a directory for finding the psalms and hymns appointed to be sung on Sundays and principal festivals of the Christian year), Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, the blessing of candles, ashes, children and rosaries, the forms of the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Matrimony and Extreme Unction, the churching of women, the recommendation of a departing soul, the marriage service and nuptial mass, the burial service and office and mass for the dead, the hymns and sequences for Church seasons, etc., in both Latin and English; and not only the Epistles and Gospels for Sundays and feast days, but also the introits, collects, and post-communions. And especially should every American Catholic be pleased to find in this volume (at page 56) 'the Prayer for the Church, the Civil Authorities, etc.,' composed by Bishop Carroll in the year 1800, so long omitted for some unaccountable reason from all our prayer books."

MANUAL OF PRAYERS

FOR THE USE OF THE CATHOLIC LAITY.

792 Pages. 16mo. Size 4 x 5½ inches.

Prepared and Enjoined by Order of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore.

The only Complete Compendium of the Prayers and Ceremonies of the Church ever compiled having a replete explanation of each of the Sacraments, aiding Catholics and converts to fully understand the sacred offices of the Catholic Church.

The Ordinary of the Holy Mass.

N.B.—At Low Mass the parts within brackets are to be passed over.]

The Priest, standing at the foot of the Altar, and making the usual reverence, signs himself with the sign of the Cross from the forehead to the breast, and says in an audible voice: *

IN nomine Patris, ✠ et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.

IN the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then, joining his hands before his breast, he begins the Antiphon:

V. Introibo ad altare Dei.

V. I will go in unto the Altar of God.

R. Ad Deum, qui lætificat juventutem meam.

R. Unto God, who giveth joy to my youth.

* At the beginning of High Mass, when the Priest commences at the foot of the Altar, the choir sings the Kyrie eleison, etc. (sometimes the Introit is sung first), which usually lasts until the Gloria in excelsis. Those parts of the service which are sung by the choir are also said in a low voice by the Priest.

ST. VINCENT'S MANUAL.

966 Pages. 16mo. Size 4 x 5¾ Inches.

The universal popularity of this Manual among the Rev. Clergy and the people of the country—which has steadily increased from its first appearance,—renders it needless to enlarge upon its merits here. Originally prepared for use of the Sisters of Charity, it became not only their ordinary manual, but that of many thousands of pious Catholics throughout the land.

Many devotions, not usually found in prayer books, have been included in this edition: such as the prayers of Bona Mors, Meditations for every day in the year, The Scapular, The Living Rosary, The Month of May, etc., etc., making it complete, accurate and convenient.

44 PRAYERS AT MASS.

Prayers at Mass.

A DEVOUT METHOD OF HEARING MASS.

Making the sign of the Cross with the Priest, say,

IN the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

I will draw near to Thy altar, O my God, there to gain new strength and vigor to my soul; separate me from those unbelievers who have no trust in Thee; grant me that grace which comforts me when the remembrance of my sins afflicts and casts me down; that grace which lets me know there is an everlasting refuge in Thy goodness, and that Thou art ready to forgive even our greatest sins upon a sincere repentance.

78 PRAYERS AT MASS.

At the Collects.

ALMIGHTY and eternal God, we humbly beseech thee mercifully to give ear to the prayers of thy servant, which he offers thee in the name of thy Church, and in behalf of us thy people, accept them to the honor of thy name, and good of our souls; and grant us all those blessings which may any way contribute to our salvation. POCKET PRAYER BOOK.

With Epistles and Gospels.

COMPLETE IN ONE VOLUME. SIZE 4½ x 2⅞ INCHES. ⅜ OF AN INCH IN THICKNESS.

This book was made to meet the demand for a compact manual, containing all the necessary prayers for church use. It is complete in a small compass, and can be carried without inconvenience.

Although it was originally intended for men, it has become popular and is now extensively used by both sexes.

Ant. Introibo ad altare Dei.

R. Ad Deum, qui lætificat juventutem meam.

IN the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Ant. I will go unto the altar of God.

R. To God, who giveth joy to my youth.

PSALM xlii.

P. JUDICA me, Deus, et discerne causam meam de gente non sancta: ab homine iniquo et doloso erue me.

R. Quia tu es, Deus, fortitudo mea, quare me repulisti? Et quare tristis incedo, dum affligit me inimicus?

P. Emitte lucem tuam, et veritatem tuam: ipsa me deduxerunt, et adduxerunt in montem

P. JUDGE me, O God, and distinguish my cause from the nation that is not holy: deliver me from the unjust and deceitful man.

R. For thou, O God, art my strength: why hast thou cast me off? And why do I go sorrowful while the enemy afflicteth me?

P. Send forth thy light and thy truth: they have conducted me and brought me to thy holy mount,

LORD Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, when thy passion drew near wouldst for me, wretched sinner, fear and grow sad; grant that I may ever direct all my sorrows unto thee, the God of my heart: and thou, O Lord, in union of thy passion and sorrow, deign to assist me to bear them with patience, that by the merits of thy sufferings, they may be saving to me. Amen.

The Following of Christ.

FIRST BOOK.

USEFUL ADMONITIONS FOR A SPIRITUAL LIFE.

CHAPTER 1.

OF FOLLOWING CHRIST, AND DESPISING ALL THE VANITIES OF THE WORLD.

"HE that followeth me, walketh not in darkness," saith our Lord. (John 8. 12.) These are the words of Christ, by which we are admonished that we must imitate His life and manners, if we would be truly enlightened, and delivered from all blindness of heart.

Let it then be our chief study to meditate on the life of Jesus Christ.

2. The doctrine of Christ surpasseth all the doctrines of the saints; and whosoever hath the Spirit, will find therein a hidden manna.

But it happeneth that many, by frequent hearing the gospel, are very little affected; because they have not the Spirit of Christ.

THE BOOK OF EXODUS.

The Second Book of MOSES is called EXODUS, from the Greek word EXODOS, which signifies going out: because it contains the history of the going out of the children of Israel out of Egypt. The Hebrews, from the words with which it begins, call it VEELLE SEMOTH: These are the names. It contains transactions for 145 years; that is, from the death of Joseph to the erecting of the tabernacle.

CHAPTER 1.

The Israelites are multiplied in Egypt. They are oppressed by a new king, who commandeth all their male children to be killed.

THESE are the names of the children of Israel, that went into Egypt with Jacob: they went in, every man with his household:

2 Ruben, Simeon, Levi, Juda,
3 Issachar, Zabulon, and Benjamin,
4 Dan, and Nephtali, Gad and Aser.

8 In the mean time there arose a new king over Egypt, that knew not Joseph:

9 And he said to his people: Behold the people of the children of Israel are numerous and stronger than we.

10 Come, let us wisely oppress them, lest they multiply: and if any war shall rise against us, join with our enemies, and having overcome us, depart out of the land.

COMMENDATIONS.

Approbation of His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons.

THE CATHEDRAL,

Baltimore, September 1, 1899.

We hereby approved of the publication by Messrs. John Murphy Co. of the CATHOLIC BIBLE, which is an accurate reprint of the Rheims and Douay edition with Dr. Challoner's notes.

The sacred volume is printed in an attractive style.

James Card. Gibbons.

Archbishop of Baltimore.

TO JOHN MURPHY COMPANY,
Publishers to the Holy See and His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons.

Approbation of His Grace Archbishop Ryan

225 EAST LOGAN SQUARE,

Philadelphia, March 31, 1902

I regard the edition of the BIBLE published by the John Murphy Company of Baltimore, as far superior to any edition in the English language. The general get up of the work is all that can be desired. I recommend it most earnestly to all the faithful of this Archdiocese.

Yours faithfully,

P. J. Ryan Abp of Phila

TO JOHN MURPHY COMPANY,
PUBLISHERS, BALTIMORE

THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH, PHILADELPHIA. — "The Protestant fore fathers of the passing generation, Quakers, Pilgrims, Puritans, Lutherans, and Episcopalians, were exclusively devoted to the English Bible, as we have it in the King James' version, and they failed to recognize the fact that there is any other English Bible. Even intelligent Protestants to-day are hardly more than dimly enlightened as to the existence of a Catholic English Bible. That the sacred writings have been translated into English by the scholars of the Roman Catholic Church is, of course, commonly known, but that this Bible, known as the 'Douay,' is regarded by millions of Catholics as the one, sole authoritative English Bible, just as the King James version is similarly regarded by Protesants, is not generally understood among members of the last-named communion. It is worthy of note in America that the best edition of the Catholic Bible has been issued in this country. The John Murphy Company, of Baltimore, Catholic Publishers and Printers to the Holy See, have put forth the Douay Bible and the New Testament in English, which, as a work of the publisher's art, is equal to the finest issues of the Oxford Press of England. It is a beautiful book, speaking of it only as an example of high accomplishment in printing and binding. As to the sacred text, sanctioned by the Catholic Church, it would do intelligent Christians, whether Catholic or Protestant, no harm to be better acquainted with it."

DONOHOE'S MAGAZINE, BOSTON, MASS. —"The new, large type edition of the Douay version of the Holy Bible meets a long-felt want. It makes a substantial volume of about thirteen hundred pages and yet is not bulky. It is printed on fine white opaque paper and the large type stands out bold and clear. Great care has been taken in its preparation and its absolute correctness is guaranteed. There are added a number of colored maps illustrating the Bible lands in different periods of their history, and these should prove very interesting to the reader or student. There is also a family register for recording births, marriages and deaths. No Catholic home should now be without a copy of the Bible, as the purchase of this new large type edition is within the reach of all."

CATHOLIC QUARTERLY REVIEW, PHILADELPHIA, PA.—"This is the best one volume edition of the Bible that we have seen. It is compact and the type is unusually good for a book of the size. For general reading, no one should try to find a one volume edition of the whole Bible, but for reference, when one must have many books at hand in order to work rapidly, this one will be very useful. We have not been making Bibles to be proud of, and we are glad to notice any advancement in that field of book-making which our neighbors have worked so admirably."

CATHOLIC BOOK NOTES, LONDON, ENG. —"From time to time it is our pleasant task to call attention to the numerous works which issue from the press dealing with the Sacred Scriptures, or to new editions of the inspired writings. Messrs. Washbourne are the London agents for a well printed edition of the Bible, which has been issued by the John Murphy Company, of Baltimore, with the imprimatur of Cardinal Gibbons."

THE AVE MARIA.—"A new and welcome edition. The size is the best that could be chosen. We have long wished to see a Catholic Bible like this. It is a careful reprint of the Rheims and Douay edition with Dr. Challoner's admirable notes. Colored maps enhance the value of this Bible, which we feel sure will find favor everywhere."

OXFORD INDIA PAPER EDITION.

We have just issued an edition of our New Large Type Bible, beautifully printed on the celebrated Oxford India Paper, made especially for us, and the exclusive features of which are its wonderful opacity, marvelous thinness, beautiful color-tone, strength and durability. 1400 pages measuring only one inch in thickness.

THE "COMBINATION" BIBLE

"I give your 'Combination' Bible my commendation and endorsement without one qualifying word. The work is a genuine surprise to me." Bishop Scarborough, Trenton, N. J.

"I desire to express to you my hearty appreciation of this magnificent work. Fond as I am of the Scriptures, they never seemed so attractive to me as in the volume which you have produced." Rev. George C. Lorimer, Boston, Mass.

"I have examined your Bible from cover to cover and can heartily endorse all of the good things others have said about it." Rev. Chas. A. Shatto, Jamaica Plains, Mass.

"What an inestimable help such a Bible would have been to me in my early ministry. I wish it a wide circulation." Bishop Foss, Philadelphia.

"Just what the people want." Rev. Russell H. Conwell, Philadelphia.

"This is almost an ideal Bible for devotional use, and I depart from my usual custom in heartily recommending it with its valuable helps." Bishop Hendrix, Kansas City, Mo.

"I know of no Bible that contains within itself so much of real value to every Biblical student as your 'Combination' Bible." Rev. D. D. MacLaurin, Detroit, Mich.

"It is just what I have long been wanting." Rev. P. S. Henson, Chicago, Ill.

"A fine edition of the Bible." Rev. M. D. Babcock, Baltimore, Md.

"Am greatly pleased with it." Rev. E. K. Bell, Cincinnati, O.

"One of the best for practical work I have ever seen." Rev. A. C. Dixon, Brooklyn, N. Y.

"It meets a long-felt want." Rev. E. F. Gallagher, Bellevue, Pa.

"A very useful edition." Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, Washington, D. C.

"I am much pleased with it." Rev. G. D. Baker, Philadelphia, Pa.

"The best for students ever published." Rev. A. N. Wilson, Baltimore, Md.

"It should be in the hands of every clergyman." Bishop Leonard, Cleveland, O.

"Very happily arranged and easily understood." Bishop Neely, Portland, Maine.

"It is unrivalled." Rev. J. G. Butler, Washington, D. C.

"It amply justifies the claims which you make." Bishop Coleman, Wilmington, Del.

"I can heartily commend it." Rev. John Hall, New York.

"One of the most valuable forms in which the Holy Bible has been presented to the public. I hope it will receive the wide circulation it deserves." Bishop Clark, Providence, R. I.

"I think it an improvement upon any edition I have seen. It cannot fail to be appreciated by every one who examines it." Bishop Whitaker, Philadelphia.

"It is a Biblical library for the Sunday-school teacher. May you secure a wide circulation for this noble edition.." Rev. J. B. Remensnyder, New York.

"Unique in plan, extraordinary in scope and exceptional in value. The arrangement of the two editions is most helpful." Bishop Huntington, Syracuse, New York.

"I take great pleasure in commending it for family use." Bishop Foster, Roxbury, Mass.

"Arranged upon a plan which makes it especially useful." Bishop Doane, Albany, N. Y.

"I consider it very valuable." Bishop Peterkin, Parkersburg, W. Va.

"I use it constantly." Rev. R. S. MacArthur, New York.

"One of the most remarkable of all the editions of the Book of books." Bishop Rulison, South Bethlehem, Pa.

"I appreciate the admirable features of this edition." Rev. C. H. Parkhurst, New York.

How to Read
THE "COMBINATION" BIBLE.

The King James Version is the basis, and this version is read straight along from the text, while the Revised Version is read from the text in combination with the foot-notes. These notes give all words and passages of the Revised Version where it differs from the King James Version. To show where these differences occur we make use of two reference letters:

RV just before a word or passage shows how the same word or passage is rendered in the Revised Version as seen in the corresponding foot-note.

RO before a word or passage in the text indicates that the words inclosed in parentheses in the foot-notes are omitted in the Revised Version.

The numbers of the verses in the foot-notes correspond to the numbers of the verses in which these changes occur. In every instance where the King James Version is changed, the change in the text, whether an addition or omission, is shown at the bottom of the page.

The different foot-notes are separated by dashes, which indicate a returning to the text, which is to be read until a new RV or RO indicates another change which will be found in the foot-notes.

Whenever any doubt arises as to where to continue in the text, connecting words (catch words) are used in the foot-notes, so that a foot-note often ends with one or two words common to both versions, which words accordingly are also found above in the text. By this arrangement the reading is made very simple and easy.

THE READING EXEMPLIFIED.

On this circular we print page 1129 of our Combination Bible, and the following paragraphs show how it is to be read. It is printed from an electrotype plate of this Bible, and shows the large clear type, size of page, etc.

The first RV in St. Luke appears in the first verse, before "set forth." In the King James Version the reading is, "set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us," By referring to verse 1 in the foot-notes, it will be seen that the Revised Version reads, "draw up a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us,"

In the third verse the King James reads, "had perfect understanding of all things from the very first," By reference to the foot of page, it will be seen that the Revised Version reads, "traced the course of all things accurately from the first."

In the fourth verse there is an RV before the word "of." The King James Version reads, "of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed." By reference to figure 4 at foot of page it will be seen that the Revised Version reads, "concerning the things wherein thou wast instructed."

In the fifth verse there is an RO which denotes an omission. Refer to the foot-notes, and (the) will be found in parenthesis. Every omission is placed in a parenthesis in the foot-notes, and the Revised Verson in this instance reads, "Herod, king of Judea," the word "the" not appearing before "king," as it does in the Old Version.

Thus it is seen that the Revised Version is easily read in connection with the King James Version. The system is so simple and so easily understood that no reader finds any difficulty in comparing the two versions.

☞ We also publish a large type Self-Pronouncing edition containing the King James Version only.

their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 [o] And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, [p] and preach the gospel to [rv] every creature.

16 [q] He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; [r] but he that [rv] believeth not shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; [s] In my name shall they cast out devils; [t] they shall speak with new tongues;

18 [u] They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall [rv] not hurt them; [x] they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 ¶ So then [rv] [y] after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was [z] received up into heaven, and [a] sat [rv] on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, [b] and confirming the word [rv] with signs following. Amen.

Christ eateth the passover. ST. MATTHEW, XXVI. His agony in the garden.

13 Verily I say unto you, Whereso-ever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, [rv]there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.
14 ¶ [h]Then one of the twelve,
[rv]called [i] Jū′das Īs-căr′ĭ-ot, went unto the chief priests,
15 And said [ro]unto them, [k] What [rv]will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they [rv]covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.
16 And from that time he sought opportunity to [rv]betray him.
17 ¶ [l] Now [rv]the first day of [ro]the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jē′sus, saying [ro]unto him, Where wilt thou that we [rv]prepare for thee to eat the passover?

A. D. 33.

[h] Mark 14.10. Luke 22. 3. John 13. 2, 30.
[i] ch. 10. 4.
[k] Zech. 11. 12. ch. 27. 3.
[l] Ex. 12. 6, 18. Mark 14. 12. Luke 22. 7.
[m] Mark 14. 17-21. Luke 22. 14. John 13. 21.
[n] Ps. 41. 9. Luke 22. 21. John 13. 18.
[o] Ps. 22. Is. 53. Dan. 9. 26. Mark 9. 12.

27 And he took [rv]the cup, and gave thanks, and gave [ro]it to them, saying, [t] Drink ye all of it;
28 For [u]this is my blood [x]of the [rv]new testament, which is shed [y]for many [rv]for [ro]the remission of sins.
29 But [z]I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, [a]until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.
30 [b] And when they had sung [rv]an [3]hymn, they went out [rv]into the mount of Ŏl′ĭves.
31 Then saith Jē′sus unto them, [c]All ye shall [d]be offended [rv]because of me this night: for it is written, [e]I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

CHAPTER 11.

Lazarus raised from death.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lăz'ą-rus, of Bĕth'ă-nȳ, the town of Mā'rȳ and her sister Mär'thą.

2 (It was that Mā'rȳ which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lăz'ą-rus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jē'ṣus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jē'ṣus loved Mär'thą, and her sister, and Lăz'ą-rus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Jū-dæ'ą again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jē'ṣus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he

23 Jē'ṣus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Mär'thą saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jē'ṣus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mā'rȳ her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jē'ṣus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Mär'thą met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mā'rȳ, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mā'rȳ was come where

CHAPTER 1.

1 Elimelech driven by famine into Moab, dieth there. 4 Mahlon and Chilion, having married wives of Moab, die also. 6 Naomi returning homeward, dissuadeth her two daughters in law from going with her. 14 Orpah leaveth her, but Ruth accompanieth her. 19 They two came to Beth-lehem.

B. C. 1322.

[rv] NOW it came to pass in the days when [d] the judges [rv 1] ruled, that there was [e] a famine in the land. And a certain man of [f] Bĕth'-lĕ-hĕm-jū'dah went to sojourn in the country of Mō'ab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.

2 And the name of the man was Ĕ-lĭm'ĕ-lech, and the name of his wife Ną-ō'mī, and the name of his two sons Mąh'lon and Chĭl'ĭ-on, [g] Ĕph'rąth-ītes of Bĕth'-lĕ-hĕm-jū'dah. And they came [h] into the country of Mō'ab, and [2] continued there.

3 And Ĕ-lĭm'ĕ-lech Ną-ō'mī's husband died; and she was left, and her two sons.

4 And they took them wives of the women of Mō'ab; the name of the one was Ōr'pah, and the name of the other Rūth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

5 And Mąh'lon and Chĭl'ĭ-on died [ro] also both of them; and the woman was left of her two [rv] sons and [rv] her husband.

6 ¶ Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Mō'ab: for she had heard in the country of Mō'ab how that the LORD had [i] visited his people in [j] giving them bread.

7 [rv] Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her; and they went on the way to return unto the land of Jū'dah.

8 And Ną-ō'mī said unto her two daughters in law, [k] Go, return each [rv] to her mother's house: [l] the LORD deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with [m] the dead, and with me.

9 The LORD grant you that ye may find [n] rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice, and wept.

10 And they said unto her, [rv] Surely we will return with thee unto thy people.

11 And Ną-ō'mī said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me? [rv] are there yet any more sons in my womb, [o] that they may be your husbands?

12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have an husband. If I should say, I have hope, [3] if I should [rv] have an husband also to night, and should also bear sons;

13 Would ye [rv 4] tarry [ro] for them till they were grown? would ye [rv] stay [ro] for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters; for [5] it grieveth me much for your sakes [rv] that [p] the hand of the LORD is gone [rv] out against me.

14 And they lifted up their voice, and wept again; and Ōr'pah kissed her mother in law; but Rūth [q] clave unto her.

15 And she said, Behold, thy sister in law is gone back unto her people, and unto [r] her [rv] gods: [s] return thou after thy sister in law.

16 And Rūth said, [6] [t] Intreat me not to leave thee, [rv] or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: [u] thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God:

17 Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: [v] the LORD do so to me, and more also, if [rv] ought but death part thee and me.

18 [rv] [w] When she saw that she [7] was stedfastly minded to go with her, [ro] then she left speaking unto her.

19 ¶ So they two went until they came to Bĕth'-lĕ-hĕm. And it came to pass, when they were come to Bĕth'-lĕ-hĕm, that [x] all the city was moved about them, and [rv] they said, [y] Is this Ną-ō'mī?

20 And she said unto them, Call me not [8] Ną-o'mī, call me [9] Mą'rą: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me.

CHAPTER 26.

The rulers conspire against Christ.

AND it came to pass, when Jē'ṣus had finished all these rv sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 Ye know that after two days rv is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is rv betrayed to be crucified.

3 Then rv assembled together the chief priests, ro and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the rv palace of the high priest, who was called Cā'ĭa-phăs,

4 And rv consulted that they might take Jē'ṣus by subtility, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not rv on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ Now when Jē'ṣus was in Bĕth'ă-nў, in the house of Sī'mon the leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster rv box of very precious ointment, and rv poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But when rv his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 rv When Jē'ṣus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always.

12 For in that she ro hath poured this ointment rv on my body, she did *it rv for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, rv there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, rv called Jū'das Is-căr'ĭ-ot, went unto the chief priests, 15 And said ro unto them, What rv will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they rv covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to rv betray him.

17 ¶ Now rv the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jē'ṣus, saying ro unto him, Where wilt thou that we rv prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I ro will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jē'ṣus ro had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when ro the even was come, he rv sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they rv did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began rv every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He that rv dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth rv as it is written of him: but woe unto that man rv by whom the Son of man is betrayed! rv it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 rv Then Jū'das, which betrayed him, answered and said, rv Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ And as they were eating, Jē'ṣus took bread, and blessed rv it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said. Take, eat; this is my body.

27 And he took rv the cup, and gave thanks, and gave ro it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my blood of the rv new testament, which is shed for many rv for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And when they had sung rv an hymn, they went out rv into the mount of ŏl'ĭves.

31 Then saith Jē'ṣus unto them, All ye shall be offended rv because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Hā′man came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man [2] whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Hā′man thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?

7 And Hā′man answered the king, For the man [3] whom the king delighteth to honour,

8 [4] Let the royal apparel be brought [5] which the king useth to wear, and [d] the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head:

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and [6] bring him on horseback through the street of the city, [e] and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

10 Then the king said to Hā′man, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Môr′dĕ-cāi the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: [7] let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Hā′man the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Môr′dĕ-cāi, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

12 ¶ And Môr′dĕ-cāi came again to the king's gate. But Hā′man [f] hasted to his house mourning, [g] and having his head covered.

13 And Hā′man told Zē′resh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zē′resh his wife unto him, If Môr′dĕ-cāi be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Hā′man unto [h] the banquet that Ĕs′thēr had prepared.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Esther, entertaining the king and Haman, maketh suit for her own life and her people's. 5 She accuseth Haman. 7 The king in his anger, understanding of the gallows which Haman had made for Mordecai, causeth him to be hanged thereon.

SO the king and Hā′man came [8] to banquet with Ĕs′thēr the queen.

2 And the king said again unto Ĕs′thēr on the second day [a] at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Ĕs′thēr? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Ĕs′thēr the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

4 For we are [b] sold, I and my people, [9] to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

5 ¶ Then the king Ăh-hăs-ū-ē′rŭs answered and said unto Ĕs′thēr the queen, Who is he, and where is he, [10] that durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Ĕs′thēr said, [11] The adversary and enemy is this wicked Hā′man. Then Hā′man was afraid [12] before the king and the queen.

7 ¶ And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Hā′man stood up to make request for his life to Ĕs′thēr the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Hā′man was fallen upon [c] the bed whereon Ĕs′thēr was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also [13] before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they [d] covered Hā′man's face.

9 And [e] Hăr-bō′nah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, [f] the [14] gallows fifty cubits high, which Hā′man had made

The glorious access of the ISAIAH. Gentiles to the church.

19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.
20 ¶ And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.
21 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My Spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

CHAPTER LX.

Glorious access of the Gentiles.

ARISE, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.
2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.
3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.
4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.
5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.
6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.
7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory.
8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?
9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.
10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.
11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.
12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.
13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.
14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.
16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.
17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.
18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.
19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.
20 Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.
21 Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.
22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

CHAPTER LXI.

The office of Christ.

THE Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;
2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;
3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called Trees of righteousness, The planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.
4 ¶ And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.
5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your ploughmen and your vinedressers.
6 But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.
7 ¶ For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.
8 For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.
9 And their seed shall be known among the mot himmelen, och det vardt ett tjockt mörker i Egyptens hela land i tre dagar.

23. Ingen kunde se den andre, och ingen stod upp ifrån sin plats i tre dagar. Men för alla Israels barn var ljust där de bodde.

24. Och Farao kallade Mose till sig och sade: Gån och tjänen Herren! Endast edra får och edra fäkreatur må stanna här! Äfven edra små barn må få gå med eder.

25. Och Mose sade: Du skall äfven låta oss få med oss slaktoffer och brännoffer att frambära åt Herren, vår Gud.

26. Och äfven vår boskap skall gå med oss, och ingen klöf lämnas kvar; ty af dem skola vi taga offer åt Herren, vår Gud, och vi veta icke hvad vi skola offra åt Herren förrän vi komma dit.

27. Men Herren förhärdade Faraos hjärta, att han icke ville släppa dem.

28. Och Farao sade till honom: Gack bort ifrån mig! Akta dig, att du icke ännu en gång ser mitt ansikte! ty den dag då du ser mitt ansikte skall du dö.

29. Och Mose svarade: Rätt har du talat. Jag skall icke hädanefter se ditt ansikte.

11 Kapitlet.

Mose kungör den sista plågan, som skulle drabba Egyptierna.

Och Herren sade till Mose: Ännu en plåga vill jag låta komma öfver Farao och öfver Egypten. Därefter skall han släppa eder härifrån. När han då släpper eder, skall han fullständigt utdrifva eder härifrån.

2. Säg till folket, så att alle höra det, att de skola begära, hvarje man af sin nästa, och hvarje kvinna af sin nästa, smycken af silfver och smycken af guld.

3. Och Herren gaf folket nåd för Egyptiernas ögon. Mose var ock en man af ganska stort anseende i Egyptens land, både i Faraos tjänares ögon och i folkets ögon.

4. Och Mose sade: Så säger Herren: vid midnattstid vill jag gå midt igenom Egypten,

5. och allt förstfödt i Egyptens land skall dö, ifrån Faraos förstfödde son, som sitter på sin tron, ända till tjänstekvinnans förstfödde, som står bakom handkvarnen, och allt förstfödt ibland boskapen. 2 Mos. 12: 29.

6. Och ett stort klagorop skall blifva i Egyptens hela land, sådant, att dess like aldrig har varit och aldrig skall blifva.

7. Men bland Israels barn skall icke en hund gläfsa med sin tunga, hvarken emot människor eller boskap, på det att I skolen förnimma, att Herren gör skillnad mellan Egypten och Israel.

8. Och alla dessa dina tjänare skola komma ned till mig och buga sig för mig och säga: drag ut du och allt folket, som följer dig! Och därefter skall jag draga ut. Och han gick ut från Farao i vredesmod.

9. Och emedan Herren hade sagt till Mose: Farao skall icke höra eder, på det att mina under skola många varda i Egyptens land,

10. så gjorde Mose och Aron alla dessa under inför Farao. Men Herren förhärdade Faraos hjärta, så att han icke släppte Israels barn utur sitt land.

12 Kapitlet.

Påskalammet. Mordängeln. Israeliternas uppbrott.

Och Herren talade till Mose och Aron i Egyptens land och sade:

2. Denna månad skall vara den främste af edra månader, och ifrån den skolen I begynna årets månader.

3. Talen till Israels hela menighet och sägen: På tionde dagen i denna månaden tage man sig, efter fädernehusen, ett lamm för hvarje hushåll!

4. Och om ett hushåll är för litet till ett lamm, så tage husfadern och hans närmaste granne ett tillsammans, efter personernas antal! På hvarje lamm skolen I räkna ett visst antal personer, i mån af hvad de äta.

5. Ett felfritt lamm af hankön och årsgammalt skolen I taga. Af fåren eller getterna skolen I taga det.

6. Och I skolen förvara det intill fjortonde dagen i denna månaden.

STYLE C. C. (Combination).

Mechanically this edition of the Bible will be found in every respect superior to all others. The type was made especially for us. It is good size, large, strong face, clear and distinct, and, we believe, superior to any competitive Bible. The paper is of the best grade, imported directly by ourselves from the foreign manufacturers. The printing is done on large perfecting presses and challenges comparison with any and all others for clearness, neatness and beauty of execution. The binding is done in our own establishment by the most skillful workmen, with the advantage of the latest and best facilities under special superintendence; and, for elegance and durability, will stand the test of comparison with the most noted European binders' work.

WORDS OF JESUS IN BOLD FACE TYPE

The Combination and BOLD FACE Type Features shed a New Light upon the Sacred Scriptures

Translated out of the original Greek: with the former Translations diligently Compared and Revised. The Text conformable to the Edition of 1611

A MANY FEATURED TESTAMENT

BOLD FACE TYPE This edition of the New Testament is the Authorized or King James Version, with Christ's sayings printed in BOLD FACE type. Here all the words, quotations and allusions of Christ stand out vividly conspicuous in BOLD FACE type.

COMBINATION FEATURE Showing in Simple Form all Changes, Additions and Omissions made by the Revisers, and enabling Readers to see at a glance wherein the Two Versions differ. The King James Version is the basis, and this version is read straight along from the text, while the Revised Version is read from the text in combination with the foot-notes. These notes give all words and passages of the Revised Version where it differs from the King James Version.

SELF-PRONOUNCING All Proper Names are Divided and Accented according to the Standard Authorities. This feature is of especial value to Bible Students and Readers. It defines the pronunciation of the many Difficult Words which occur throughout the Scriptures.

SCRIPTURE ATLAS Containing a series of Maps showing the Holy Land and surrounding countries at different periods in Jewish History and at the present time. The very latest information concerning localities mentioned in the Scriptures is placed before the reader in this series of beautifully colored Maps.

PICTORIAL EMBELLISHMENTS This volume contains a superb gallery of magnificent Engravings representing the most striking scenes in the New Testament. These are by celebrated artists, and their exquisite beauty is seen at a glance.

In addition to the New Testament this volume contains the Book of Psalms. The devotional spirit of the Psalms is evident to all, which, with their beauty of language and pure and noble sentiments, places them among the choicest treasures of inspiration.

Blind men healed. ST. MATTHEW, 10. Devil cast out.

son of Dā′vid, have mercy on us.
28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jē′ṣus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.
29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.
30 And their eyes were opened; and Jē′ṣus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

HOW TO READ THE COMBINATION BIBLE

Below is part of a page of our Combination Bible. The following Key shows how it is to be read:

KEY—the first RV in St. Luke appears in the first verse, before "set forth." In the King James Version the reading is, "set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us." By referring to figure 1 in the foot-notes, it will be seen that the Revised Version reads, "draw up a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us,"

In the third verse the King James reads, "had perfect understanding of all things from the very first," By reference to figure 3 at the foot of page, it will be seen that the Revised Version reads, "traced the course of all things accurately from the first,"

In the fourth verse there is an RV before the word "of." The King James Version reads, "of those things wherein thou hast been instructed." By reference to figure 4 at foot of page it will be seen that the Revised Version reads, "concerning the things wherein thou wast instructed."

In the fifth verse there is an RO which denotes an omission. Refer to the footnotes, and (the) will be found in parenthesis. Every omission is placed in a parenthesis in the foot-notes, and the Revised Version in this instance reads, "Herod, king of Judea," the word "the" not appearing before "king," as it does in the Old Version.

Thus it is seen that the Revised Version is easily read in connection with the King James Version The system is so simple and so easily understood that no reader finds any difficulty in comparing one version with the other.

CONCISE BIBLE DICTIONARY.
NEW CONCORDANCE.

NEW ILLUSTRATIONS.
NEW MAPS.

THE CONCISE BIBLE DICTIONARY

which forms the Helps to Nelson's Teachers' Bibles is based on the Illustrated Bible Treasury, written by leading scholars in America and Great Britain, each one a recognized authority on the subject on which he writes. It supplies in the most condensed and convenient form all the latest information about the Bible, its writers, its language, the various Versions, complete Chronology, Life of Christ with Harmony of the Gospels, Life and Travels of St. Paul, etc.

THE ILLUSTRATIONS

are reproduced from recent photographs and truly illustrate the articles where they appear.

THE COMBINED CONCORDANCE

combines Complete Concordance, Subject Index, Scripture Proper Names, Obsolete and Ambiguous words in one A-B-C list. It also gives the correct pronunciation and interpretation of Scripture Proper Names and has over 10,000 references to the Revised Version where it differs from the King James Version.

THE 12 MAPS

have been carefully revised and are beautifully colored, notably the reproduction of the Relief Map of Palestine lately published by the Palestine Exploration Society. There is also a complete index to every place noted on the maps.

"The new plan of putting the Helps in Dictionary form is a marked advance over anything yet in print."

THE INTERIOR says :—"This Bible will give more value to the Bible Teacher, Student or Reader, than any other edition of the great book."

For styles and prices, see pages 23 to 26 and 48.

THE CONCISE BIBLE DICTIONARY,

which forms the Helps of NELSON'S TEACHERS' BIBLES.

The ox was used by the Jews for ploughing, treading out the corn in threshing, and for draught, and was only killed for sacrifices and for great feasts. Cows' milk was used, both fresh and slightly curdled, and also churned into butter, or in the form of curds, often called "butter" in Scripture. In the Jordan valley the Indian buffalo has been introduced, probably from Persia, in post-Exilian times.

CEDAR [çē'dar] of Lebanon grows also on the Taurus and Atlas Mountains. It was the king of trees (1 Kings 4. 33), the symbol of grandeur, might, loftiness, and ever-increasing expansion. Its wood was used in the successive temples at Jerusalem and in the palace of Nebuchadrezzar. The cedar of Lev. 14. 4 and Num. 19. 6 is probably an aromatic juniper.

CENCHREA [çĕn'chre-â]. [See CORINTH.]

CHALCEDONY [chăl-çed'ō-nȳ] (Gr. chalkedon), Rev. 21. 19. One of the many varieties of minutely crystalline silica, of a light, often milky, color, related to agate (q.v.).

CHALDÆA [chăl-dē'â], the plain of Babylon, or Lower Mesopotamia; once a very fertile land, now a barren, sandy desert. One of its great cities was "Ur of the Chaldees."

CHALDÆANS [chăl-dē'ans]. [See BABYLONIA.]

CHALDEE [chal'dee]. [See ARAMAIC.]

CHAMELEON [chā-mē'lē-on]. [See LIZARD.]

CHAMOIS [chăm'ois, shăm'mȳ] (A. V. and R. V., Heb. "the leaper," Deut. 14. 5), the moufflon, or wild sheep.

CHARIOT [chăr'ĭ-ŏt] (Gen. 41. 43). The Israelites were familiar with chariots, as used by their enemies (Egyptians, Ex. 14. 25; Canaanites, Judg. 4. 3), long before they had them themselves. But David (2 Sam. 8. 4) and Solomon (1 Kings 10. 26) introduced both chariots and horses in ever-increasing numbers. They were two-wheeled vehicles, curved in front and open behind, in which two men could ride, one of whom drove (1 Kings 22. 34), while the other fought with bow or spear.

CHEDORLAOMER [chĕd'or-lā'o-mer]. [See ABRAHAM.]

CHEMOSH [chē'mŏsh], the god of the Moabites. [See MOABITE STONE.]

CHERUB [chĕr'ŭb] (plural CHERUBIM), a symbolical winged creature with a human face, associated in Scripture with the throne or chariot of Jehovah (Ps. 18. 10; 80. 1; 99. 1). In Gen. 3. 24 cherubim appear as the guardians of the approach to the tree of life. Two cherubim were placed on the mercy-seat or covering of the ark of the covenant in the Tabernacle and in the Temple, and figures representing cherubim were wrought into the hangings of the Holy of Holies. In Ezekiel's description (ch. 1 and 10; 41. 18, 19) they have a human body, with a head presenting the faces of a man, a lion, an ox, and an eagle, four hands, and four wings; the whole body of the cherubim and the wheels of the chariot being furnished with innumerable eyes. In Revelation the four faces of the cherubim are distributed among the four "living creatures" that surround the throne of God. [See GOSPELS.]

CHESTNUT-TREE [chĕst'nŭt-tree] (Gen. 30. 37; Ezek. 31. 8; R. V. plane-tree). It is a tall and majestic tree, growing near water in Palestine. From the globular form of the flowers and fruits it is often called button-tree.

CHITTIM [chĭt'tim] (also Kittim, Gen. 10. 4) is Greek Kition, the Phœnician port of Cyprus; the modern Larnaka. Hence Chittim is used in the Old Testament to denote the whole of Cyprus (e. g. Num. 24. 24).

CHRIST [chrīst] JESUS [jē'sus]. [See LIFE OF JESUS, pages 53–67; His Life and Works, see Concordance, under CHRIST; His Names, Titles, and Offices, see Concordance, under JESUS.]

CHRONICLES [chrŏn'ĭ-cles], THE FIRST AND SECOND BOOKS OF THE, are in the third part of the Jewish Canon, where they form one book, named "Words (or "Acts") of Days," i. e. minutes of events, lists of names, and the like. In the LXX. they are divided into two books, entitled Paraleipoměna, "things omitted" or "passed over." Their Latin title from the time of Jerome has been Chronica, "Chronicles." The priestly tone of the writer, and his preoccupation with the fortunes of the house of David and the kingdom of Judah, are marked features of the work, which runs parallel to the older history (Books of Samuel and Kings), and is mainly drawn from the same sources.

NELSON'S BIBLE INDEX.

DESCRIPTION.

1. Printed in gold on waterproof paper.

2. Provides separate cutting for each of the thicker books which are more frequently referred to.

3. Indexes all the small books (37 of which contain less than 10 pages each) in groups of two or more, locating the cutting at the beginning of the first book of the group.

ADVANTAGES.

1. The index names are so printed that the Bible requires no turning to read the index.

2. All cuttings are full and open, giving a clear view of the index.

3. The index for Psalms (probably most frequently referred to) stands at the top of the second series of cuttings, so that it can be turned to without reading the index name.

4. Matthew stands at the top of the third series, thereby plainly marking the beginning of the New Testament.

5. Opening at Matthew brings to view every name in each cutting of the whole index.

Price of Index, 35 cents additional.

Israelites' task increased. EXODUS, V, VI. God reneweth his promise.

they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

CHAPTER V.

1 Pharaoh chideth Moses and Aaron for their message. 5 He increaseth the Israelites' task. 15 He checketh their complaints. 20 They cry out upon Moses and Aaron. 22 Moses complaineth to God.

AND afterward Moses and Aaron went in, and told Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go.

3 And they said, The God of the Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword.

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in evil case, after it was said, Ye shall not minish ought from your bricks of your daily task.

20 ¶ And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh:

21 And they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our savour to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

David maketh a vow. PSALMS. Of the mercy of God.

PSALM 101.

David maketh a vow and profession of godliness.

A Psalm of David.

I WILL sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.
2 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.
3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.
4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.
5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.
6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfor ever; and thy remembrance unto all generations.
13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.
14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof.
15 So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.
16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.
17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.
18 This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.
19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

God sheweth his power. JOB, 40. Job humbleth himself.

11 Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labour to him?
12 Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it into thy barn?
13 Gavest thou the goodly wings unto the peacocks? or wings and feathers unto the ostrich?
14 Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in dust,
15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.
16 She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labour is in vain without fear;
17 Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath he imparted to her understanding.
18 What time she lifteth up herself on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider.
19 Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?
20 Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.
21 He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth on to meet the armed men.
22 He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted; neither turneth he back from the sword.
23 The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield.
24 He swalloweth the ground with fierce-ness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.

25 He saith among the trumpets, Ha, ha; and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
26 Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south?
27 Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high?
28 She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.
29 From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.
30 Her young ones also suck up blood: and where the slain are, there is she.

CHAPTER 40.

MOREOVER the LORD answered Job, and said,
2 Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.
3 ¶ Then Job answered the LORD, and said,
4 Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.
5 Once have I spoken: but I will not answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.
6 ¶ Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
7 Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

Israelites overcome, I. SAMUEL, 4. and the ark taken.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The Israelites are overcome by the Philistines. 11 The ark is taken, and Hophni and Phinehas are slain. 18 Eli falleth backward. 19 I-chabod is born.

AND the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Eben-ezer: and the Philistines pitched in Aphek.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight.

10 ¶ And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11 And the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

THE VARIORUM REFERENCE BIBLE.

THE TEXT IS THE KING JAMES VERSION with the passages marked where the rendering is considered faulty by scholars and where the reading of the original text is found to vary from the best and more recently discovered MSS., Versions, Translations, etc.

Note.—This marking is similar to the well-known reference marks, and does not interfere with the ordinary reading of the Scriptures.

The passages so marked have references in the footnotes on each page, where may be found various renderings with their authorities and various readings, with the sources from which they are taken.

The earlier editions of the Variorum Bible were published prior to the Revised Version, and, in consequence, the Old Testament Editors were invited to join the Westminster Revision Committee. Many members of that Committee have testified to the unique value of the Variorum, and to the great assistance it proved to them in the work of Revision.

All the best critical editions and translations, including the Revised Version, are collated up to date. The brief explanatory notes and interpretations have been increased, and—

The Poetical portions of the text are set out in parallelisms characteristic of Hebrew Poetry.

The notes, thus collated, place before the reader the evidence for or against alterations of the Revised Version, and the authorities that confirm the same.

The sources from which these Annotations are taken comprise, in the OLD TESTAMENT: 90 Commentators; 14 Versions, including the Revised Version, and R. V. Marginal Readings.

NEW TESTAMENT: 78 Commentators; 6 Ancient Versions; 23 Ancient Manuscripts; 11 Critical Editions of the Text, and Revised Version and Marginal readings.

NELSON'S CONCORDANCE BIBLES.

With Combined Concordance and 12 Indexed Maps.

Containing Under One Alphabet:

A new Concordance. Subject-Index. Pronouncing Dictionary of Scripture Proper Names, diacritically marked for their pronunciation, with meaning. Obsolete and ambiguous words. Names, Titles, and Offices of Christ, by Professor Ira M. Price, Ph.D., Chicago. Life and Work of Christ from Scripture Texts. Incidents in the Old Testament referred to in the New Testament. Passages quoted or paraphrased in the New Testament from the Old. Over 10,000 references are given to the Revised Version, which show all the principal changes of the Revised Version side by side with the passages according to the Authorized Version. The incorporation of all these features in the Concordance has, it is believed, made it the most useful and handy Concordance ever published. For Specimen, see page 5.

A BIBLE ATLAS, containing twelve beautifully colored maps and Index. The maps have been specially engraved from the latest surveys, and carefully revised by the leading authorities on Biblical geography. An exquisite relief map has been specially prepared from the raised map issued by the Palestine Exploration Fund. The position of Bible places can be easily ascertained by reference to the Index.

THE ACCENTING MARKS for pronunciation are according to the latest revision of Webster's International Dictionary.

Job's innocency. JOB 23, 24, 25, 26. Judgment for the wicked.

CHAPTER 23.

THEN Job answered and said,
2 Even to day is my complaint bitter:
[1] my stroke is heavier than my groaning.
3 Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!
4 I would order my cause before him,
and fill my mouth with arguments.
5 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.
6 [b] Will he plead against me with his great power? No; but he would put strength in me.
7 There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge.
8 [e] Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him:

Certainty and manner 1 CORINTHIANS, 15. of the resurrection.

38 But if any man be ignorant, β let him be ignorant.
39 Wherefore, brethren, [b] covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.
40 β Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER 15.

3 By Christ's resurrection, 12 he proveth the necessity of our resurrection, against all such as deny the resurrection of the body. 21 The fruit, 35 and manner thereof, 51 and of the changing of them, that shall be found alive at the last day.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel [f] which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and [h] wherein ye stand;
2 [1] [l] By which also ye [2] are saved, if ye ‖ keep in memory † what I preached unto you [1], unless [m] ye [3] have believed [4] in vain.
3 For [n] I delivered unto you first of all that [o] which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins [q] according to the scriptures;
4 And that he was buried, and that he [5] rose again the third day [r] according to the scriptures:
5 [t] And that he was seen of Cephas, then [v] of the twelve:
6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.
7 After that, he was seen of James; then [a] of all the apostles.
8 [b] And last of all he was seen of me also, as of [6] ‖ one born out of due time.
9 For I am [c] the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because [e] I persecuted the church of God.
10 But [g] by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but [h] I laboured more abundantly than they all: [i] yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.
12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?
13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, [o] then [7] is Christ not risen:
14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and β your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because [a] we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, [8] if so be that [8] the dead rise not.
16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:
17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; [c] ye are yet in your sins.
18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.
19 [d] If [9] in this life only we have [10] hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.
20 But now [e] is Christ risen from the dead, β and become β [g] the firstfruits of them that slept.
21 For [i] since by man came death, [k] by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
23 But [p] every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.
24 Then cometh the end, when he β shall have delivered up [s] the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.
25 For he must reign, [x] till he hath put all enemies under his feet.
26 [y] The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.
27 For he [z] hath put all things under his feet. But [11] when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.
28 [d] And when all things shall be [12] subdued unto him, then [f] shall the Son also himself be [12] subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.
29 Else what shall they do which are baptized [13] for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?
30 And [k] why stand we in jeopardy every hour?
31 I protest by [14] ‖ [l] your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [m] I die daily.
32 [15] If ‖ after the manner of men [n] I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what β advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? [p] let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

A UNIQUE TEACHER'S BIBLE.

The REV. F. N. PELOUBET in the Senior Sunday School Quarterly, 2d quarter, 1895, says, "Probably the most complete and perfect Bible for teachers and pastors in existence is the Variorum Teachers' Edition, published by Eyre & Spottiswoode. It not only has the helps usually found in Teachers' Bibles, revised and improved to the very latest dates, but it has at the foot of each page the various Renderings and Readings, with the authorities, so that at a glance the teacher can know whether he is speaking by authority, can correct his impressions, and can receive no little light on the meaning of all difficult passages. It brings at a glance what could elsewhere be gained by long research or special books. It is beautifully printed, beautifully bound. It is a work of art as well as of learning."

VARIORUM TEACHERS' BIBLES.

This New Edition of the Variorum Teachers' Bible is not merely a reference Bible with the Teachers' Aids appended, but in addition, it contains on the same page as the text, in footnotes, a complete digest of the various Renderings and Readings of the original text from the very best authorities

The names of the Editors are sufficient to guarantee the excellence of the work.

OLD TESTAMENT.—REV. T. K. CHEYNE, M.A., D.D., Professor of Interpretation, Oxford; REV. S. R. DRIVER, D.D., Professor of Hebrew, Oxford.

NEW TESTAMENT.—REV. R. L. CLARKE, M.A., Queen's College, Oxford; ALFRED GOODWIN, M.A., Balliol College, Oxford, and University College, London; REV. W. SANDAY, M.A., D.D., LL.D., Professor of Exegesis, Oxford.

THE "VARIORUM" AIDS have been prepared by Eminent Authorities and contain the most reliable and exhaustive information on the Bible—its History, its Contents, Chronology, etc. The Aids are illustrated with 175 half-tone Illustrations, printed in sepia, and produced by the Woodbury Company. There is also a Combined Index to the Proper Names, Places and Subjects of the Bible, and a Concordance of Bible Words comprising over 40,000 references, with 12 maps and Index.

THE VARIORUM NOTES, together with the "New Aids to Bible Students," give to the Student of Scripture an amount of information which could only be obtained by the possession of a very exhaustive and costly Library. Thus within the compass of a PORTABLE VOLUME is comprised the quintessence of Biblical Criticism and Scholarship in the most convenient form.

16 The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.
17 ¶ From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.
18 ¶ And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.
19 And he saith unto them,

THE HOLY BIBLE WITH APOCRYPHA

and Marginal Readings Adopted by General Convention.

Authorized to be read in Churches.

The Marginal Readings are intended to explain obscure or inaccurate passages of the King James Version. They represent the continuous labor for many years of the Joint Commission of Bishops and Presbyters appointed by the General Convention for that purpose.

In addition to the Marginal Readings an appendix is added which contains a large number of renderings original to this work.

This Bible is issued by the authority of General Convention.

42. 38 GENESIS 43. 25

Jacob's Sons sent again, and Benjamin with them

I will bring him to thee again.
38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he only is left: if harm befall him by the way in which ye go, then will ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol.

43 And the famine was sore in the land. 2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them,
Go again, buy us a little food. 3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.
4 If thou wilt send our brother with mouth of your sacks carry again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight: 13 take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man:
14 and [3]God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may release unto you your other brother and Benjamin. And if I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.
15 And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.
16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, Bring the men into the house, and slay, and make ready;

TEACHERS' EDITION

OF THE

AMERICAN STANDARD REVISED BIBLE

Containing the Concise Bible Dictionary, a new Combined Concordance to this Revised Version and 12 Maps with Index.

THE CONCISE BIBLE DICTIONARY

which forms the Helps to these Teachers' Bibles is based on the Illustrated Bible Treasury, written by leading scholars in America and Great Britain, each one a recognized authority on the subject on which he writes. It supplies in the most condensed and convenient form all the latest information about the Bible, its history, its writers, its language, the various Versions, complete Chronology, Life of Christ, with Harmony of the Gospels, Life and Travels of St. Paul, etc. (See specimen on page 4.)

are reproduced from recent photographs and truly illustrate the articles where they appear.

THE COMBINED CONCORDANCE

is entirely new and has been made expressly for the American Standard Edition. It combines complete Concordance, Subject-Index, Scripture Proper Names, Obsolete and Ambiguous words in one A-B-C list. It also gives the correct pronunciation and interpretation of Scripture Proper Names and has over 10,000 references to the Authorized Version, where it differs from the Revised Version. (See specimen on page 46.)

THE 12 MAPS

have been carefully revised and are beautifully colored, notably the reproduction of the Relief Map of Palestine, lately published by the Palestine Exploration Society. There is also a complete index to every place noted on the maps.

"The best version of the Scriptures yet produced."—THE STANDARD.

"Beyond question the best translation of the whole Bible now available."—THE WATCHMAN.

"The best Teachers' Bible thus far published."—CHRISTIAN INTELLIGENCER.

EVENING PRAYER. 17

pass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord, open thou our lips.
Answer. And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

¶ Here, all standing up, the Minister shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
Minister. Praise ye the Lord.
Answer. The Lord's Name be praised.

¶ Then shall follow a Portion of the PSALMS, as they are appointed, or one of the Selections, as they are set forth by this Church. And at the end of every Psalm, and likewise at the end of the Magnificat, Cantate Domino, Bonum est confiteri, Nunc dimittis, Deus misereatur, Benedic anima mea, may be sung or said the Gloria Patri: and at the end of the whole Portion or Selection of Psalms for the day, shall be sung or said the Gloria Patri, or else the Gloria in excelsis, as followeth.

Gloria in excelsis.

GLORY be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

¶ Then shall be read the FIRST LESSON, according to the Table or Calendar.

¶ After which shall be sung or said the Hymn called Magnificat, as followeth.

Magnificat. St. Luke i. 46.

MY soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his handmaiden.

160 OTHER FEASTS AND FASTS.

4 Once again those storms are breaking;
Hearts are failing, love grows cold;
Faith is darkened, sin abounding;
Grievous wolves assail Thy fold:
Save us, Lord, our one Salvation;
Save the faith revealed of old.

5 Call the erring by Thy pity;
Warn the tempted by Thy fear;
Keep us true to Thine allegiance,
Counting life itself less dear;
Standing firmer, holding faster,
As we see the end draw near:

6 Till, with holy Jude and Simon
And the thousand faithful more,
We, the good confession witnessed
And the lifelong conflict o'er,
On the sea of fire and crystal
Stand, and wonder, and adore.

General for Saints' Days.

174 7.6.

FROM all Thy saints in warfare, for all Thy saints at rest,
To Thee, O blessed Jesus, all praises be addressed.
Thou, Lord, didst win the battle that they might conquerors be;
Their crowns of living glory are lit with rays from Thee.

Insert here the stanza for the special Saint's Day to be celebrated.

ST. ANDREW.

2 Praise, Lord, for Thine apostle, the first to welcome Thee,
The first to lead his brother, the very Christ to see.
With hearts for Thee made ready, watch we throughout the year,
Forward to lead our brethren to own Thine Advent near.

ST. THOMAS.

3 All praise for Thine apostle, whose short-lived doubtings prove Thy perfect twofold nature, the fullness of Thy love.
On all who wait Thy coming shed forth Thy peace, O Lord,
And grant us faith to know Thee, true Man, true God, adored.

NEW CENTURY LIBRARY.

Printed on the Thinnest Printing Paper in the World.

DICKENS, SCOTT, THACKERAY, AND

SELECTED WORKS OF THE BEST AUTHORS.

The Type is the same in both.

The New Century Library is a radical departure in the art of bookmaking The largest novel is published unabridged in a single volume which is so small that it is equally suitable for the pocket or satchel, and consequently invaluable for summer reading and traveling. As a library edition it is handsome in the extreme.

The size is only 4¼ by 6¼ inches, and not thicker than a monthly magazine. Each volume weighs less than eight ounces.

Nelson's India paper, the thinnest printing paper in the world, is used in making these books. Although thin this paper is very strong and remarkably opaque. It is made specially for Thomas Nelson & Sons, and cannot be procured elsewhere.

The type is as large and as easily read as that you are now reading. The printing is beautiful and clear, and the thin paper and handsome binding give a delightful volume, one that fits perfectly into Charles Lamb's requisite: "A volume you can easily hold in the hand and enjoy by the light of the evening lamp."

CHARLES DICKENS'S WORKS.

Webster's Imperial Dictionary

New from A to Z. Printed from New Plates. Thousands of New Words.

Not a reprint nor a photographic reproduction (beware of such books—they are valueless), but an entirely new Dictionary that defines more words than any previous Webster.

A single page in this book (1089) defines 36 words not found in Webster's International Dictionary; another page (1177) defines 23 such words. You need the latest and best. This is it. RADIUM, the various RAYS, TRUSTS, etc., and all other modern words, also old words with modern meanings, such as graft for instance, are correctly defined in their proper place.

For over sixty years all complete Webster Dictionaries were published by one concern. That monopoly is now broken and a new publisher issues Webster's "Imperial" Dictionary, 15 years later than ANY previous complete Webster Dictionary, under whatever name published. It contains 15 years' later knowledge,—the result of recent research. Just think what that means to every purchaser of a dictionary and to all those who refer to them !!!

Insist on having Webster's Imperial Dictionary if you want the latest and best. 2173 pages, 2500 new illustrations, new colored plates and tables.

THIS DICTIONARY IS GUARANTEED. If it is not all we claim for it in every way, your money back for the asking. Isn't that fair? This is the only Dictionary ever offered on such a guarantee. Other dictionary publishers fear to make such an offer.

The three best dictionaries before the publication of this book were the Century, the Standard and Webster's International.

WEBSTER'S IMPERIAL DICTIONARY is infinitely better than the International, in fact that book is entirely outclassed by this one; they cannot be compared—because there is nothing but glaring contrast between them. For many reasons the "Imperial" is better than the Standard. It falls short of the Century (which sells for $75.00 and upward) only in that it is not an encyclopedia and dictionary combined—but merely a dictionary. On the other hand, it is simpler, equally erudite, and excels all of the others in terse, lucid definitions.

TO FULLY DESCRIBE Webster's Imperial Dictionary is impossible. An examination of the work itself is necessary to make one realize its superiority over all other dictionaries of the English language.

The aim has been to make a dictionary of the English language as it is. Words which were used in one sense ten years ago may have several other meanings to-day, and Webster's Imperial gives them all.

THIS WORK IS OF TO-DAY, NOT OF YESTERDAY, NOR DOES IT CLAIM TO BE OF TO-MORROW.

WEBSTER'S IMPERIAL DICTIONARY excels all others in those features which make a dictionary most desirable, for the reason that good judgment and unlimited common sense have been used throughout in its preparation both editorially and from a mechanical standpoint.

This work is handsomely and substantially bound with the best materials that can be selected for durability, and it is so new that you need to look in but one place for a word, and that place is its alphabetic order. The entire work being absolutely new, has no supplement—because it needs none, for it is complete, unabridged and up-to-date from every possible standpoint.

A COMPARISON. Number of Pages from A to Z, in Webster's Unabridged [Issued in 1864] 1545 Pages. Webster's International [Issued in 1890] 1681 Pages. WEBSTER'S IMPERIAL [Issued in 1905] 1956 Pages, and with its Encyclopedic Appendix, 2173 Pages.

Price { $5.00 Bound in Full Law Sheep. / $8.00 Bound in Russia Leather. } Both Editions Thumb Indexed Without Extra Charge.

OGILVIE'S TEACHER'S BIBLES.

Nineteen Numbers. In Minion and Self-Pronouncing Bourgeois Types

All our 8vo Bibles have References, Concordance, Helps to the Study of the Bible, etc., and our 16mo Bibles are without References, Concordance or Helps.

Each Bible is bound in flexible leather covers, with red under gold edges, and packed in a neat box. All of these Bibles, both 8vo and 16mo, contain 16 half-tone photographic plates of the Holy Land, a beautiful frontispiece, 12 colored maps and 32 fully explained valuable copyright pages of illustrations, descriptive of recent Biblical researches and discoveries in Assyria, Babylonia, Egypt and Palestine.

All Bibles having a No. ending with 2 (52—2—152—102—202) are paper lined—those having a No. ending with 3 (53—3—153—103—203) are linen lined—those having a No. ending with 4 (54—4—154—104) are leather lined.

All of the above Nos. have the same quality of outside leather cover —viz. Florentine Seal.

All Bibles having a No. ending with 5 (55—5—155—105—205) are leather lined and are bound in a superior quality of leather covers—viz. Palestine Levant.

☞ All prices quoted are for plain Bibles. If they are required with Thumb Index they can be supplied with that feature, for which there is an extra charge of 50c per copy.

LIFE IN THE BACKWOODS.—A Guide to the successful Hunting and Trapping of all kinds of Animals.

This book is by an old trapper, for many years engaged in trapping in the Northwest, who has finally consented to publish and disclose these secrets. Persons living where wild animals exist, with some traps and the information contained in this book, can make money faster through the trapping season by giving their time and energies to the business than they can by seeking their fortunes in the gold regions or in oil speculations. This is at once the most complete and practical book now in the market. Price, 25 cents.

LOVE AND COURTSHIP CARDS.—Sparking, courting and love-making all made easy by the use of these cards. They are arranged with such apt conversation that you will be able to ask the momentous question in such a delicate manner that the girl will not suspect what you are at. They may be used by two persons only, or they will make lots of fun for an evening party of young people. There are sixty cards in all, and each answer will respond differently to every one of the questions. Price, 30 cents.

MAGIC DIAL (THE).—By the use of which secret correspondence may be carried on without fear of detection. No one (even if provided with one of these dials) can decipher it. It is entirely new, and nothing like it has ever appeared. It is simple and reliable, and can be used by any person. It will be mailed for 15 cents.

MAGIC TRICK CARDS.—The Magician's Own Cards, for performing wonderful tricks. Every boy a magician! Every man a conjurer! Every girl a witch! Every one astonished! They are the most superior trick cards ever offered for sale, and with them you can perform some of the most remarkable illusions ever discovered.

Complete illustrated directions accompany each pack. They will be mailed, postpaid, sealed as a letter, for 15 cents a pack.

MODEL LETTER-WRITER (THE).—A comprehensive and complete guide and assistant for those who desire to carry on epistolary correspondence—containing instructions for writing letters of introduction; Letters of business; Letters of recommendation; Applications for employment; Letters of congratulation; Letters of condolence; Letters of friendship and relationship; Love-letters; Notes of invitation; Letters of favor, of advice and of excuse, etc., etc., together with appropriate answers to each. This is an invaluable book for those persons who have not had sufficient practice to enable them to write letters without great effort. Price, 25 cents.

MOODY'S SERMONS.—We desire to announce that we have just issued two books, one entitled Moody's New Sermons and the other Moody's Latest Sermons, containing Mr. Moody's most recent sermons. The name and fame of Mr. Moody as the most successful evangelist of the age will create a large demand for these books containing his most recent utterances.

Any of these Books mailed, postpaid, on receipt of price.

MOODY'S NEW SERMONS.—Contents: The Work of the Holy Spirit; God's Service and the Holy Spirit; Elements of True Prayer; "Thy Will Not Mine Be Done;" Trust in God Brings Perfect Peace; Watch, Fight and Pray; The Influence of the Individual; That "Elder Brother;" Obedience to God's Commands; "No Room for Christ." MY SISTER HENRIETTE.—A Popular Book. By Ernest Renan. Translated from the French by Walter J. C. Gussenrode.

The first edition of this work consisted of but 100 copies, issued for private circulation, and on rare occasions when a copy chanced to be sold in some private library it brought from 400 to 500 francs. It has become justly celebrated, and is now issued in a handsome paper-covered edition. Price, 25 cents.

MISS SLIMMENS' BOARDING-HOUSE.—By the author of "A Bad Boy's Diary." 16mo, 188 pages, with nine illustrations. Complete edition. Paper cover, 25 cents.

MISS SLIMMENS' WINDOW.—Complete edition in one volume now ready. 16mo, 150 pages. Bound in heavy paper covers, with 13 illustrations, 25 cents.

NICHOLSON'S ENCYCLOPEDIA OF ARCHITECTURE.—By Peter Nicholson, the world-renowned architect and builder, whose reputation and experience make him an unquestioned authority on all questions relating to building and structures of all kinds, including railroads, bridges, lighthouses, cathedrals, churches, theaters, public and private buildings of every character. It would be impossible in any circular to give the faintest idea of the real and practical value of this work, but when we make the statement that thousands of copies of this work have been sold for $32.00, and that we now offer you the same work for $10.00, you will have some idea of the great advantage we are now offering you. It is issued in two handsome quarto volumes, bound in half morocco, each volume containing 650 pages, or a total of 1,300 pages—among which are two hundred and fifteen full-page steel engravings, which have been reproduced especially for this work. The enormous expense attendant upon the publication of this work will be understood somewhat when we state that the original cost of the plates used was nearly $11,000. A wonderful and special offer!—We are anxious to get immediate orders for this work to help to reimburse us for the immense outlay, and we make you the following special offer for a limited time: If you will send us a remittance of $9.00 within twenty days after you receive this catalogue we will send the two volumes by express, all charges paid, to your address.

NAPOLEON'S COMPLETE BOOK of Fate and Complete Fortune Teller.—This is the celebrated Oracle of Human Destiny consulted by Napoleon the First previous to any of his undertakings, and by which he was so successful in war, business and love. It is the only authentic and complete copy extant, being translated into English from a German translation of an ancient Egyptian manuscript found in the year 1801 by M. Sonini in one of the royal tombs near Mount Libycus, in Upper Egypt. This Oraculum is so arranged that any question on business, love, wealth, losses, hidden treasures, no matter what its nature, the Oraculum has an answer for it. It also shows how to learn of one's fate by consulting the planets. Price, 15 cents.

OGILVIE'S HOUSE PLANS; or, How to Build a House.—A neat new book, containing over thirty finely executed engravings of dwellings of all sizes, from two rooms up; also churches, barns and outhouses in great variety.

This handy, compact and very useful volume contains, in addition to the foregoing, plans for each floor in each and every dwelling of which an engraving is given. It has also valuable information relative to building, such as number of shingles required in a roof, quantity of plaster for a house, quantity of materials required for building a house, etc., etc., and much other information of permanent and practical value.

Any one of the plans is alone worth very much more than the price asked for the book. It is invaluable to every architect, builder, mason or carpenter, and particularly do we urge all who anticipate erecting a new or remodeling an old dwelling to send for a copy, as its fortunate possessor may save hundreds of dollars by following the suggestions it contains. Price, 25 cents.

Any of these Books mailed, postpaid, on receipt of price.

ONE HUNDRED BEAR STORIES.—By Murat Halstead. We desire to announce that we have just issued a book written and edited from the peculiar and fascinating literature of the Bear by the well-known and popular journalist Murat Halstead, and which will have a large sale. It is fully illustrated by one of the best artists of the day. Twelve full-page illustrations. 12mo, 250 pages. Paper cover, 50 cents.

ODELL'S SYSTEM OF SHORTHAND.—By which the taking down of sermons, lectures, trials, speeches, etc., may be easily acquired, without the aid of a master. By this plan the difficulties of mastering this useful art are very much lessened, and the time required to attain proficiency reduced to the least possible limits. The Lord's Prayer as shown above is written in shorthand. Price, 15 cents.

The Lords Prayer.

OLD WITCHES' DREAM BOOK AND COMPLETE FORTUNE TELLER.—Do you ever dream? And would you like to know the meaning of any or all of your dreams? If so, you ought to buy this book, which contains the full and correct interpretations of all dreams and their lucky numbers. Also fortune telling by cards, by the grounds in the coffee cup, how to discover a thief, to know whether a woman shall have the man she wishes, to know what fortune your future husband shall have, to see your future wife or husband. The dumb cake, together with charms, incantations, etc., etc. This is a book that every one that wishes to know what is going to happen ought to buy. Price, 25 cents.

OLD SECRETS AND NEW DISCOVERIES.—Containing Information of Rare Value for all Classes, in all Conditions of Society.

It Tells all about Electrical Psychology, showing how you can biologize any person, and, while under the influence, he will do anything you may wish him, no matter how ridiculous it may be, and he cannot help doing it.

It Tells how to Mesmerize. Knowing this, you can place any person in a mesmeric sleep, and then be able to do with him as you will. This secret has been sold over and over again for $10.

It Tells how to make persons at a distance think of you—something all lovers should know.

It Tells how you can charm those you meet and make them love you, whether they will or not.

It Tells how Spiritualists and others can make writing appear on the arm in blood characters, as performed by Foster and all noted magicians.

It Tells how to make a cheap Galvanic Battery; how to plate and gild without a battery; how to make a candle burn all night; how to make a clock for 25 cents; how to detect counterfeit money; how to banish and prevent mosquitoes from biting; how to make yellow butter in winter; Circassian curling fluid; Sympathetic or Secret Writing Ink; Cologne Water; Artificial Honey; Stammering; how to make large noses small; to cure drunkenness; to copy letters without a press; to obtain fresh-blown flowers in winter; to make good burning candles from lard.

PALLISER'S BOOKS OF PLANS.

GEORGE PALLISER'S MODERN BUILDINGS, a new up-to-date book, containing OVER ONE HUNDRED PLANS, all new (1901), of houses ranging in cost from $500 to $20,000; also plans of Public Library Buildings, Summer Hotels, Stables, Public Halls, etc., etc.

This book is a collection of practical designs showing examples of houses recently built, and invaluable to everyone thinking of building, by reason of their having been, with very few exceptions, planned in the ordinary course of a busy architect's practice during the last few years, and built in various parts of the country within the prices given.

Full description accompanies each plate, giving sizes, height of stories, how built and finished, and improvements contained, thus giving information of very great value to everyone contemplating building, as the plans and designs embody the best thought and most careful study of those erecting them, giving real results as to cost, and a guide that is safe to follow. These designs and plans have, therefore, a value that can be fully appreciated for their practical utility and stand alone, as real examples, of how some people's homes are planned and what they cost.

To those wanting homes or selling home sites, members of building associations, land companies, real estate men, those having land to improve, carpenters and builders, and everyone interested or who ever hopes to own a home, these designs are invaluable and will prove of very great value to them. It contains 115 large pages, size 11 x 14 inches. Price, bound in heavy paper cover, sent by mail, postpaid, $1.00. Bound in cloth, $2.00. Sent by mail, postpaid, to any address on receipt of price.

PALLISER'S AMERICAN ARCHITECTURE, or, Every Man a Complete Builder.—The latest and best publication on modern artistic dwellings and other buildings of low cost. This book contains 104 pages, 11 x 14 inches in size, and consists of large 9 x 12 plate pages giving plans, elevations, perspective views, descriptions, owners' names, actual cost of construction, no guess work, and instructions HOW TO BUILD 70 cottages, villas, double houses, brick block houses, suitable for city suburbs, town and country, houses for the farm and workingmen's homes for all sections of the country, and costing from $300 to $4,500; also barns, stables, schoolhouse, town hall, churches, and other public buildings, together with specifications, form of contract, etc., etc., and a large amount of information on the erection of buildings, selection of site, employment of architects, etc., etc.

IT IS THE MOST PRACTICAL WORK EVER ISSUED.

The plans shown have been built from and many of them duplicated many times over. All are practical, the creation of a well-known firm of successful architects, and are alike valuable to builders, and any one who has in view the erection of a house. The plans are susceptible of slight changes that will adapt them to any taste.

The carpenter remote from a city needs just such a book to refer to or to exhibit to his customer, so that the latter can give his orders in an intelligible manner. The much-desired economy in these structures is not, however, obtained at the expense of beauty—every one of the designs, even the very cheapest, is pleasing to the eye. Following the ideas laid down, the builder is sure to obtain a pretty result. Another result aimed at by the authors is the convenience of internal arrangements. Many a good house has been spoiled by having the needed closet room omitted. All this has been carefully studied by the practical and experienced gentlemen whose names are on the book, and the owner or working builder who selects a design from this work will be sure to secure all the elegance, convenience, and economy possible in the erection of a house.

Any of these Books mailed, postpaid, on receipt of price.

If you ever intend to build get this book and study it before you commence. This should be your first step towards building a house, so as to ascertain what kind of a house you want and find out how much it is going to cost before going ahead.

The value of this work to builders cannot be estimated, as it contains designs for just such houses as they are called on to build every day in the week. This book of 104 pages, as described above, will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address on receipt of price. Price, heavy paper cover, $1; handsomely bound in cloth, $2.

PALLISER'S MODEL DWELLINGS.—When you build be wise in time and not when it is too late, after paying dearly for experience. Get this new book of designs. None of them ever before published. Don't buy a book five years old.

This is a complete work on building by Palliser, Palliser & Co., the best known architects in the United States, and eminent designers and writers on common sense, practical and convenient dwelling houses for industrial Americans, homes for co-operative builders, investors and everybody desiring to build, own or live in model homes of low and medium cost.

This new book is 11 x 14 inches in size, and contains large illustrated plans and views of the above house and 145 others of every kind, description and style dwellings, ranging in cost of construction and completion from $400 to $6,000, also a model city house for 24 families, costing $15,000, giving with each full descriptions, complete dimensions and sizes of rooms, etc., the actual proven guaranteed cost, places where erected, many of the most popular built several times, with changes, in different localities, together with names of owners, names and addresses of builders, which does away with ridiculous estimating or rather guessing of the cost to build.

The descriptive letter-press and reading matter throughout this book, giving very valuable information and practical suggestions on every question that can arise in building, would alone fill an ordinary book of 450 pages. Also, specifications and form of building contract.

With this book in your possession you will find it is a pleasure to build.

Free consultation given to purchasers building and very low prices for all architects' complete services connected therewith. This elegant work, which contains 128 pages, is far superior to the $15 portfolios and premium books on the market (in fact, there is nothing that can compare with it at any price), will be sent to any address, in paper cover, by mail, postpaid, on receipt of only $1.00, or bound in cloth on receipt of $2.00.

Illustrated by Plans, Elevations and Perspective Views from practical working drawings to a uniform scale, and not like the impractical sketch views which fill so many cheap architectural books that are in reality issued only as catalogues and price lists of printed plans. 1,500 Detail Drawings, covering the whole range of interior finishing and exterior construction and ornamentation of the plans in this work, and all to a uniform large scale. Cabinet work of every description—Mantels, Sideboards, Book-Cases, Cabinets, Dressers, etc., etc., in almost endless numbers and variety. Stairs, Hand Railings, Newels and Balusters. Details will be found to cover every question that can arise in constructing dwellings of every kind: Fences, Summer Houses, Pavilions, Conservatories, Arbors, Well Curbs, Outbuildings, etc., etc.; 12 New Designs for Stables and Carriage Houses; Descriptive Letter Press, giving practical suggestions, cost, etc., which would alone fill an ordinary book of 150 pages; Details of Furniture of every description, so plain that any good mechanic can understand and execute the same; Perspective Views of Four Houses Printed in Colors, showing how to paint; Specifications and Form of Building Contract, etc., etc.

Remember that Palliser's New Cottage Homes is not a catalogue of plans, neither does it contain old illustrations used in any other work. It is a complete Library of Modern Architectural Plans and Details, all of new and original design.

Those contemplating the erection of a house cannot afford to be without this book, and who does not intend building some time in their life? Hundreds of thousands of our popular books of plans, details and specifications have been sent to all parts the past ten years, and thousands of houses have been built from them; in fact, there is not a city, town or village of consequence in the United States but what contains one or more buildings so erected, and some places have as many as twenty.

One large (11x14 inches) volume, printed on heavy cream plate paper, handsomely bound in boards and leather. Price, $4.00. Sent securely packed in a box by exprees, prepaid, to any address on receipt of price.

PALLISER'S USEFUL DETAILS.—An immense practical work on every description of modern architectural details. Forty plates, size of each 20 x 26 inches. The cost of drawing each plate for engraving is $35, and the price for the whole forty plates published has just been reduced from $3.00 to $2.00. They are worth $10.00 to any one interested in the subject. Each plate is engraved and printed on tinted plate paper, so as not to soil by handling, and is a fac-simile of original drawing without reduction, therefore just the same as if drawn by hand for placing in the hands of the mechanic for execution. They are given at a very large scale, none being smaller than ¾ inch to foot, and many larger and up to half full size; in fact, they are so plain that every mechanic and apprentice can readily understand them. That they are practical designs is evident, all the drawings having been built from, many of them duplicated several times over, and the thousands of letters received from mechanics the past two years have convinced the authors that this is the work they need. "Palliser's Useful Details" are published for the benefit of the builder, mechanic, and all people interested in the building arts. They embrace a variety of constructional drawings for all classes of work—exterior and interior—pertaining to the erection of buildings of every description, and such as never before published. We will send it to any address securely packed on receipt of $2.00.

PALLISER'S COURTHOUSES, City Halls, Jails, Etc., Etc.—The finest and best publication on public buildings of every description. By the celebrated architects, Palliser, Palliser & Co. There is not an architect, public official, mason contractor or prominent builder, or any one interested that can afford to be without it. It is a practical work. The latest, cheapest and most popular work issued on public buildings. Three hundred and fifty drawings.

A $10 book in size and style. This book is 11 x 14 inches in size and consists of 85 large 9 x 12 plates, giving plans, elevations, perspective views and detail drawings, actual cost of construction and instructions how to build public buildings of every description for villages, towns, cities, counties, states, and costing from $600 to $195,000, together with specifications, etc., etc. 16 plates of details on the practical construction of courthouses and jails. A supplement giving a double plate page of a large courthouse printed in colors and two plates of heliotype prints of courthouses taken from nature.

This book of 108 pages, as described above, bound in heavy paper cover, will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address on receipt of $2.

PALLISER'S COMMON-SENSE SCHOOL ARCHITECTURE.—Illustrating the practical and economical warming, ventilation and the correct planning, arrangement and sanitary construction of school buildings for American cities, towns and villages by Palliser, Palliser & Co., architects, who have achieved greater distinction in designing buildings for school purposes than any architect the world ever knew. It gives 83 9 x 12 plate illustrations of model schoolhouses of every description, costing from $600 up, plans, elevations, sections and perspective views, 19 plates of detail drawings showing complete construction on large scales; also an Indian school, a Methodist Industrial Home School for colored girls, colleges, parochial school, convents, Canadian and Brazilian schools, etc. Every architect, member of school board and school trustee, minister and priest, as well as all prominent builders and teachers should get this publication. The value of this work to the school-building public of America is immense, as it contains just the designs that suit every want and requirement. This book, bound in heavy paper cover, will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address, on receipt of $1.

Until this new edition was printed, the book has always sold for $2.00. It is worth $5.00 to ony one.

WOMAN, HER POWER AND PRIVILEGES.—This is a series of Twelve Sermons by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, and should be read by all who are interested in the home and family. The following is the table of contents:

Women Who Fight the Battle of Life Alone; Worldly Marriages; Broken Promises of Marriage; Dominion of Fashion; The Veil of Modesty; Wifely Ambitions; Good and Bad; Woman's Happiness—What Can and What Cannot Make a Woman Happy; The Grandmother; Woman's Opportunity; The Queen of Home; Parental Blunders; Christ the Song. Paper cover, 25 cents; cloth cover, 75 cents.

WEDDING RING (THE).—This book contains a series of sermons, delivered by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D. No sermons ever delivered have created so great a sensation as this series. Hundreds of people could not get into the church to listen to them.

If you are married, or expect to be, or if you have father, mother, brother or sister, you should read this book. The sermons are not only on the relations between husband and wife, but on all the family relations. It tells how, when and whom you should marry, and gives good advice on all the relations of life.

The following is a table of contents: The Choice of a Wife; The Choice of a Husband; Clandestine Marriage; Matrimonial Harmony or Discord; Marital Duties; Costume and Morals; Duties of Wives to Husbands; Hotels versus Homes; The Domestic Circle; Sisters and Brothers; The Children's Patrimony; Motherhood; Trials of Housekeeping. Paper cover, 25 cents.

MR. CLAGHORN'S DAUGHTER.—By Hilary Trent.

This is a surprising romance, a book that goes to the heart of things. The problem it presents belongs indeed to humanity, but it more especially confronts women as such. Its tenderness, its pathos, and its boldness are decidedly feminine.

MARK TWAIN says: "I have read it with strong interest because of the grace and vigor of the style, and because of the attractions of the story as a story."

12mo. 288 pages, cloth bound. Price, $1.00 by mail, postpaid, to any address.

DOGS OF ALL NATIONS, In Prose and Rhyme.—By Conrad J. Miller.

This is a collection of stories which grew out of a child's demand for more and still more stories about dogs. The book contains 250 pages, with 75 half-tone illustrations, and is handsomely bound in cloth with gold and ink stamping. Price, sent by mail, postpaid, $1.50.

THE SOCIABLE GHOST.—By Olive Harper and Another.

This is the story of what a love-sick young reporter on one of the big dailies "saw and did not see while he was not there" in Trinity Churchyard one mild May night. He meets the Sociable Ghost and gives him a lighted pipe to smoke, and some spiritual comfort—out of a bottle—and this ghost then invites and chaperones the reporter to the ceremonies under ground.

12mo. 235 pages. With 14 full-page illustrations. Price, $1.50.

These Books Tell How To Do It!

The Books in the following list are all thorough, practical and fully up to the times. They will be sent to any part of the world, postpaid, on receipt of price.

PRACTICAL CARPENTRY. Illustrated by over 300 engravings; being a guide to the correct working and laying out of all carpenters' and joiners' work; with the solutions of the various problems in hip-roofs, gothic work, centering, splayed work, joints and joining, hinging, dovetailing, mitering, timber splicing, hopper works, skylights, raised mouldings, circular work, etc., etc., to which is prefixed a thorough treatise on "Carpenter's Geometry." By FRED. T. HODGSON, editor of "The Operative Builder," author of "The Steel Square and Its Uses," "The Builder's Guide and Estimator's Price Book," "The Slide Rule and How to Use It," etc. This is the most complete book of the kind ever published. It is thorough, practical and reliable, and at the same time is written in a style so plain that any workman or apprentice can easily understand it. Cloth bound, $1.00.

STAIR-BUILDING MADE EASY. For Young Carpenters and Joiners. Simple, plain, and may be learned in an hour; being a full and clear description of the art of building the bodies, carriages and cases for all kinds of stairs and steps together with illustrations showing the manner of laying out stairs, forming treads and risers, building cylinders, preparing strings; with instructions for making carriages for common, platform, dog legged and winding stairs. To which is added an Illustrated Glossary of Terms used in stair-building and designs for newels, balusters, brackets, stair-mouldings and sections of hand-rails. By FRED. T. HODGSON, editor of "The Operative Builder." Cloth bound, $1.00.

A NEW SYSTEM OF HAND RAILING; or, How to Cut Hand Railing for Circular and Other Stairs, Square from the Plank, without the aid of a Falling Mould. The system is new, novel, economic and easily learned. Rules, instructions and working drawings for building rails for seven different kinds of stairs are given. By AN OLD STAIR-BUILDER. Edited and corrected by Fred. T. Hodgson. Cloth bound, $1.00.

THE BUILDER'S GUIDE. The Builder's Guide and Estimator's Price Book; being a compilation of current prices of lumber, hardware, glass, plumbers' supplies, paints, slates, stones, limes, cements, bricks, tin, and other building materials; also, prices of labor and cost of performing the several kinds of work required in building, together with prices of doors, frames, sashes, stairs, mouldings, newels, and other machine work. To which is appended a large number of building rules, data, tables and useful memoranda, with a Glossary of Architectural and Building Terms. By FRED T. HODGSON, editor of "The Operative Builder," author of "The Steel Square and Its Uses," etc,, etc. 12mo, cloth bound, $2.00.

CARPENTERS' AND BUILDERS' COMPLETE COMPANION. An immense work 11 x 14 inches in size; embracing eight different sections, each containing the best and quickest method of performing the work described, and completely covering the several branches of the building trades. There are 29 page plates, giving 134 different diagrams of problems in stair-building, hand railing, etc., with descriptive letter-press giving full explanation of each. Also, a graphic description of the Steel Square and its applications, the Slide Rule, etc. Treatise on painting, paper hanging, plastering, and general carpentry; together with rules, memoranda, data, tables, etc., in every branch. Methods, suggestions, measurements, tables showing strength and weight of materials, glossary of terms, carpenters' geometry, how to estimate the cost of construction, etc., with much other useful information. This is the only work ever issued with which is incorporated a treatise on either the Steel Square or the Slide Rule. The sections devoted to these subjects alone being worth the price of the book. All tables given on estimating, etc., together with those showing the strength and weight of materials, have been prepared with the utmost care and are absolutely correct. In fact, each section which forms part of this book is complete and thorough within itself. Price, bound in cloth, only $2.00.

OGILVIE'S NEW AND IMPROVED WAGES TABLES. Calculated and arranged by EDGAR B. VELIE, Time-keeper under the United States Government. A great book for all who employ labor. This book contains complete Tables from one hour to one month, by the hour, day, week and month. Price, cloth bound, $1.00.

THE "THEORETICAL AND PRACTICAL BOILER MAKER AND METAL WORKER." By SAMUEL NICHOLL. This is an indispensable book for employers of labor, foremen and working boiler makers, iron, copper and tin-smiths, board of trade surveys, draughtsmen, engineers, the general steam-using public, and for the use of science schools and classes, and for all who wish to be well informed in their business. It contains 310 pages and 65 illustrations; also, 104 tables of calculations. Price, cloth bound, $2.50. Sent by mail to any address on receipt of price.

RECENT BOOKS.

The following five books are written by HENRY SIENKIEWICZ:

THE KNIGHTS OF THE CROSS, an Historical Romance. Translated by Basil Dahl. 12mo, 500 pages. Illustrated. Handsomely bound in cloth. Price, $1.00; bound in heavy paper cover, 50 cents.

QUO VADIS, the book of the century, containing 450 pages, and 10 full-page illustrations. Bound in paper, 25 cents; handsomely bound in cloth with gold back stamp, 75 cents.

THE THIRD WOMAN, being one of the author's most powerful character drawings. It is printed from large type on handsome laid paper, and bound in heavy enamelled paper cover. Price, 25 cents.

THE FATE OF A SOLDIER will appeal to all, especially if read at a time when the recent exploits and achievements of our own soldiers are still fresh in the public mind. Bound in paper cover; price, 25 cents.

LET US FOLLOW HIM, is a well-drawn, touching episode concerning the death of Christ, and is admittedly the author's most sympathetic work. Bound in heavy paper cover; price, 15 cents.

CUBA; Its Resources and Opportunities. By PULASKI F. HYATT, U. S. Consul, Santiago de Cuba, and JOHN T. HYATT, U. S. Vice-Consul, Santiago de Cuba. THE PLAY OF CYRANO DE BERGERAC. By EDMUND ROSTAND. 12mo, 256 pages. Paper cover 25 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

DON'T MARRY; or, Advice as to How, When and Who to Marry. This is the title of a book just issued, which has probably more good advice and suggestions in reference to marriage than any other book ever published. The object of the book is not, as some might suppose from the title, to induce people not to marry, but rather to advise them as to How, When and Who to Marry, in order to have a happy married life. It contains 112 pages, bound in paper cover, and will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address on receipt of 25 cents.

HOW TO LIVE WELL ON 25 CENTS A DAY. By MRS. GESINE LEMCKE, one of the most noted cooks and housekeepers of the day. It contains a complete bill of fare for every day for six weeks, also valuable hints and helps for housekeepers. This book will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of 25 cents.

THE GAME IN WALL STREET, And How to Play It Successfully. By "HOYLE." If you are disposed to speculate and take a chance of making a fortune rapidly, you ought to get a few ideas from our new and very instructive book giving hints and helps how to do it. A complete expose of pool methods, and how thousands of men have made money, illustrated with charts and diagrams. The most original and complete work ever written on Wall Street. The best and safest system for the amateur. Twenty-seven valuable hints for forming right judgments and making successful plays. This book is a revelation to the amateur, and will help him to make a fortune. 12mo, 100 pages. Handsomely bound in cloth. Price, $1.00.

FOUR BOOKS IN ONE—

HOW TO WOO; WHEN AND WHOM, which gives full and interesting rules for the etiquette of courtship, the time and place for conducting the same, and some good advice as to the selection of your partner for life.

COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE, which tells how to win the favor of the ladies, how to begin and end a courtship, and how to "Pop the Question"; and also gives full information in regards to the invitations, gifts, ushers, bridesmaids, conduct of the wedding ceremony, etc., etc.

THE LOVERS' COMPANION, which gives the flirtations of the handkerchief, parasol, glove, fan, and napkin; also the language of flowers; how to kiss deliciously; and a cure for bashfulness.

THE POPULAR LETTER WRITER, which tells how to write business, social, and love letters, giving numerous examples of all.

This valuable work, containing the four books above mentioned, is issued in one volume under the title "HOW TO WOO," and will be sent to any address, postpaid, upon receipt of 25 cents.

HOW TO GET MARRIED ALTHOUGH A WOMAN; or, The Art of Pleasing Men. By "A Young Widow." A new book that every woman will buy. The following Table of Contents indicates the character of the work and will also insure a large demand for it: Girls and Matrimony—The Girls Whom Men Like—The Girl Who Wins—The Girl Who Fails—Some Unfailing Methods—A Word of Warning—The Secret of the Widow's Power—Lady Beauty—The Loved Wife, etc., etc. Every unmarried woman, and, indeed, every woman, will be interested in reading this book. It will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address on receipt of 25 cents.

OGILVIE'S ONE HUNDRED AND TEN NEW RECITATIONS AND READINGS. Seven Numbers Now Ready. Paper cover; price, 25 cents each. This is a choice collection of Readings and Recitations, which have been selected with great care, and are specially adapted for Day and Sabbath Schools, all Adult and Juvenile Organizations, Young People's Associations, Reading Clubs, Temperance Societies and Parlor Entertainments. They comprise Prose and Poetry—Serious, Humorous, Pathetic, Comic, Temperance and Patriotic. All those who are interested in providing an entertainment should have this collection.

Special Offer.—To any one who will send us an order for the entire set of seven numbers we will send them all by mail, postpaid, for only $1.40.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR. By P. W. 12mo. Illustrated. Paper cover, 50 cents. Handsomely bound in cloth, $1.00. This is a most amusing book. It is made up of epigrams, and is not intended for continuous reading any more than the dictionary. Picked up at leisure half-hours it will furnish a great deal of entertainment. The author is a genial cynic, who has reduced to a fine art the saying of things that contain truth spiced with malice.

RESURRECTION. By Count Leo Tolstoi. 12mo, about 450 pages. Fully illustrated, bound in cloth, $1.00; paper cover, 50 cents. This is certainly the most powerful novel which has come from the pen of this gifted and able author. It goes into the present condition of life and tragedy in Russia, and he has written it with the idea of doing and giving justice to a class of downtrodden and suffering people.

THE SIXTH AND SEVENTH BOOKS OF MOSES. This rare and wonderful book, translated under our personal supervision into the English language, and published by us for the first time. With exact copies of over one hundred and twenty-five Seals, Signs, Emblems, etc., used by Moses, Aaron, Israelites, Egyptians, etc., in their astounding magical and other arts, including the period of time covered by the Old and New Testaments. This wonderful translation is of great importance to the Christian, Deist, Jew or Gentile, Episcopalian or Roman Catholic, and dissenters of every denomination. The extracts from the old and rare Mosaic Books of the Talmud and Cabala are invaluable. This book contains 125 illustrations which are exact copies of those used by the Israelites and Egyptians to accomplish their designs for good or evil, and separately explained. This book has become very rare, enormously popular, and formerly sold for $5.00. 12mo, 192 pages. Price, $1.00. Sent by mail, postpaid, to any address on receipt of price.

THE SECRET OF SEX; or, Controlling the Sex in Generation. By Samuel H. Terry. 12mo, 209 pages. Bound in cloth, price $1.00. Explaining the Physical Law Influencing Sex in the Embryo, and giving directions how to produce male or female offspring at will.

WHY I AM WHAT I AM. 12mo, 160 pages. Paper cover, 25 cents. Mailed to any address, postpaid, on receipt of price. The "Christian Union" says of it: "In 'Why I Am What I Am,' fourteen representatives of different religious denominations give the reasons for their peculiar faith. The representative men have been well chosen, and the denominations include the Roman Catholic at one extreme and the Jew at the other. We know of no volume which in so compact a form affords so good material for a study of denominational peculiarities, their nature and the reasons for them."

OUR NATION'S NEED. By J. A. Conwell. This is a work which every lover of his country should read. Paper cover, 25 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

THE EVERY-DAY EDUCATOR; or, How to do Business. By Seymour Eaton. This is one of the best books ever issued for young men who want to know how and what to do in business. Paper cover, 25 cents; cloth, $1.00.

"MAN IN THE STREET" STORIES.

From "The New York Times." 12mo, 320 pages. Cloth Bound, $1.00. With an Introduction by Chauncey M. Depew, who says of them:

"This collection of stories is my refresher every Sunday after the worry and work of the week. I know of no effort which has been so successful in collecting real anecdotes portraying the humorous side of life as this volume."

Prepared with a complete index which increases its value very much. Read what reviewers all over the country say of this book:

It is a great collection, and the reading of it is a treat.—Salt Lake Tribune.

Is well worth the consideration of all.—Providence Journal.

Warranted to amuse.—Boston Journal.

Probably no book of its kind excells this one.—Detroit Free Press.

The anecdotes are exceptionally entertaining, full of humor, wit and wisdom, and may be read with genuine pleasure.—St. Louis Republic.

Senator Depew says a true thing in commending the character and quality of the book.—Cleveland Leader.

A collection of the utmost use for those who wish to use bright jest and modern anecdote.—Chicago Daily News.

The kind of a book we call a "capital thing." Its humor is of the best flavor.—Minneapolis Times.

We cannot deny its attainment of success.—Baltimore Sun.

Full of good things.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Every after-dinner speaker should be thankful for the publication in book form of the "Man in the Street Stories."—Springfield Sunday Republican.

They will make the reader laugh.—Buffalo Express.

This work is useful in more ways than one.—Richmond Dispatch.

Will be useful to all who are in quest of stories to illustrate points in dinner table exploits.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The story teller need never run short as long as he has this volume to consult.—Philadelphia Press.

Constitute a very mine of material for both the political campaign and the social circle. Always interesting.—Pittsburg Index-Appeal.

The average merit of these stories is so high, that the prize-winning stories are little, if any, better than the others.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

TWENTY-EIGHT YEARS IN WALL STREET.—By Henry Clews. The Sixth Edition of this valuable book, which has been revised up to date, thus making it a history of the past forty-three years in Wall Street, has just been issued.

No man can write the history of Wall Street better than Mr. Clews, and his advice, suggestions, hints and helps about how to make money is worth more than twenty times the cost of the book. This valuable book will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address on receipt of $1.50.

"MORE EX-TANK TALES."—By Clarence Louis Cullen. With introduction by the author. 12mo. 250 pages. Price, cloth bound, $1.00.

The very flattering reception which was given to "Tales of the Ex-Tanks," by the same author, has induced us to issue this work under the above title, and which, we have no doubt, will have a large sale. It is printed on the best quality of fine laid paper, and neatly bound in cloth.

THE LETTERS OF MILDRED'S MOTHER TO MILDRED.—By E. D. Price, "The Man Behind the Scenes." 12mo. 160 pages. Price, cloth bound. $1.00.

The following is the Table of Contents: Mother at the Races—Mother at a Chicago Hotel—Mother Goes Yachting—Mother Escapes Matrimony—Mother Meets Nature's Noblemen—Mother Joins the Repertoire Company—Mother in the One Night Stands—Mother and the Theatrical Angel—Mother Returns to Mildred.

PING-PONG, And How to Play It. By Arnold Parker, winner of the Queen's Hall Open Ping-Pong Tournament. With 40 illustrations. 12mo. 160 pages. Paper cover, 25 cents; bound in cloth, 50 cents.

The intense interest which has been aroused by this new and popular game will create a great demand for this book. Everything has been explained with great detail for the benefit of those who may be inclined to learn it, and it is hoped that this little work will introduce a great deal of new interest into a game which is sure to stay, for as an indoor game it has not a rival.

THE LIFE AND DEATH OF REV. T. DeWITT TALMAGE.—By Rev. John Lobb. 12mo. 225 pages. Paper cover, 25 cents.

This book is written by Rev. Mr. Lobb, who was one of Dr. Talmage's intimate friends, and is fully qualified to write this work. The world-wide fame and name of Talmage will create a great demand for it. It contains a full and complete history of his life from birth up to and including his death, funeral services and burial. Every one who has ever heard him preach, or has read his sermons, will be glad to get this book.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.—By P. W. 12mo. 223 pages. Illustrated. Paper cover, 50 cents. Handsomely bound in cloth, $1.00.

This is a most amusing book. It is made up of epigrams, and is not intended for continuous reading any more than the dictionary. Picked up at leisure half-hours it will furnish a great deal of entertainment. The author is a genial cynic who has reduced to a fine art the sayings of things that contain truth spiced with malice.

ADVICE TO WOMEN on the Care of the Health Before, During and After Confinement. By Florence Stacpoole, Diplomee of the London Obstetrical Society, and Lecturer to the National Health Society. This valuable work, bound in paper cover, will be sent by mail, postpaid, securely sealed, to any address on receipt of 50 cents.

This is one of the most valuable and practical books ever issued, and should be in possession of every married woman. With this book no woman need have any fear in reference to childbirth and confinement.

YOUMAN'S DICTIONARY OF EVERY-DAY WANTS.

By A. E. YOUMAN, M.D.

Containing Twenty Thousand Recipes in Every Department of Human Effort, and will Save $100 a Year to All Who Own this Book.

The following description of this book may have an appearance of exaggeration, yet, when compared with the book itself, the impartial reader will allow that the description only faintly echoes the vast fund of information contained in it.

No trade, profession, or occupation but what is represented therein. The Housewife will find aids and suggestions therein innumerable. The Carpenter, the Builder, the Blacksmith, will find material aid each in their respective departments. The young lady will find innumerable aids to pass her time not only pleasantly, but profitably. The Farmer and Stock-raiser will there reap such valuable hints as cannot be found outside a a small agricultural library. The Trapper can find in no other book or books the secrets contained in Youman's. The Sick can turn therein to the particular disease with which they are troubled, and learn the latest remedies, with methods for home treatment. But it is impossible to enumerate every particular branch of every employment that Youman's Dictionary does not advance new and valuable information thereon. The following gives briefly the different trades, etc., etc., valuable information for which is found in Youman's Dictionary:

Book-keepers,	Glass Workers,	Gilders,	Varnishers,	Electrotypers,
Stock-raisers,	Hair Dressers,	Painters,	Cooks,	Fish Dealers,
Gardeners,	Hatters,	Shoemakers,	Engravers,	Gunsmiths,
Florists,	Ink Makers,	Brewers,	Furriers,	Lithographers,
Liquor Dealers,	Lumber Dealers,	Builders,	Carvers,	Milliners,
Druggists,	Miners,	Dairymen,	Jewelers,	Dentists,
Photographers,	Opticians,	Glaziers,	Dyers,	Plasterers,
Architects,	Soapmakers,	Iron Workers,	Coopers,	Scourers,
Artists,	Tinsmiths,	Authors,	Coppersmiths,	Tailors,
Bakers,	Cabinetmakers,	Nurses,	Machinists,	Taxidermists,
Confectioners,	Barbers,	Perfumers,	Curriers,	Apiarians,
Engineers,	Bookbinders,	Roofers,	Doctors,	Paper Hangers.
Flour Dealers,	Printers,	Tanners,

☞ The Reader will understand that it is utterly impossible to insert in these pages even the merest mention of the vast amount of information contained in the large, double-column 530 pages of Youman's Dictionary. The Book itself must be seen and consulted to be fully appreciated.

It is issued in two styles of binding: Cloth, with gold back stamp, $2.00; heavy Paper Cover, $1.00. Sent by mail, postpaid, to any address, on receipt of price. AGENTS WANTED.

THE ⁘ STEEL ⁘ SQUARE

AND ITS USES.

By FRED. T. HODGSON.

NEW AND ENLARGED EDITION NOW READY.

From "The Steel Square and Its Uses."

This is the only work on THE STEEL SQUARE AND ITS USES ever published. It is Thorough, Exhaustive, Clear, and Easily Understood. Confounding terms and scientific phrases have been religiously avoided where possible, and everything in the book has been made so plain that a boy twelve years of age, possessing ordinary intelligence can understand it from end to end.

This New Edition is Illustrated with over Seventy-five Wood-cuts, showing how the Square may be used for solving almost every problem in the whole Art of Carpentry, and is revised up to March, 1896.

The following synopsis of the contents of the work will give some idea of its character and scope:

History of the "Square."—Description, with Explanations of the Rules, Figures, Scales, and Divisions shown on good Squares.—Brace Rules, Octagonal Scale, Board, Plank, and Scantling Rules, fully explained and described.—How to lay out Rafters, Hips, Jack-Rafters, Purlins, Revel Works, etc., etc.—Backing for Hips, Length and Bevels of Valley Rafters. Laying out Stairs and Strings.—How to describe Circles, Ellipses, Parabolas, and other figures, with the Square.—How to obtain Bevels for Hoppers and all kinds of Splayed Work and Spring Mouldings, by the Square.—Bi-secting Circles, Proportion of Circles, Division of Widths, Bisection of Angles, Diminishing Stiles, Centering Circles, etc., etc.—Theoretical Rafters, Cuts for Mitre Boxes, Measurement of Surfaces, including Painting, Plastering, Shingling, Siding, Flooring, Rough Boarding, Tinning and Roofing.—Rules for describing Octagons, and Polygons of every description and how to find their angles and areas.—Rules for finding the lengths of Rafters and Hips of Irregular Roofs, Cuts for Equal and Unequal Mitres, Trusses and Bevel Timber Work.—The Development of Hip and Curved Roofs, Veranda Rafters, Straight and Curved, Hopper Cuts of all kinds, Angle Corner-pieces, Splayed Work for Gothic Heads, etc., etc., and many other things useful to the Operative Mechanic.

BLAKELEE'S INDUSTRIAL CYLCOPEDIA,

A READY REFERENCE AND RESERVOIR OF USEFUL INFORMATION.

In this book, by George E. Blakelee, practical mechanic, and editor of a farmers' paper, seven hundred and twenty octavo pages are devoted to explaining clearly the easiest, most practical, and best way of doing every kind of work, mechanical and otherwise that can be of use in or about a city or villag home, or on a large or small farm It not only treats fully of the use and care of tools, and shows how to make and mend an endless variety of useful articles, but also points out how to do thousands of things not requiring tools, such as mixing paints, managing teams, caring for farm stock and poultry, storing hay, grain and vegetables, harvesting a corn crop. caring for furs, leather, lamps and glass articles, butter and cheese making, pork packing canning, preserving, and the like, without end.

Not only are the mechanic and house-holder thoroughly provided for, but matters of use and interest to the farmer are treated at such length, that there seems to be nothing in the wide range of his multifarious duties that the author has overlooked. The housewife, too, has a department of her own, where, among hundreds of other things, she is taught the mysteries of bleaching and dyeing, the management of all kinds of fabrics; how to make brackets, frames, tidies rugs, mats and all kinds of knitted and fancy articles; how to beautify her furniture, polish and renew table-ware, make soap, etc., etc. The boys and girls are also fully cared for. The former are shown how they can make their own hand-sleds, cages, traps and snares for birds and animals, row-boats, apparatus for a home gymnasium and the like; while the latter are instructed in making hundreds of those beautiful and useful articles which add so much to the adornment and convenience of home.

The book is a substantial octavo volume of seven hundred and twenty pages, well printed on paper of fine quality, fully illustrated with over two hundred engravings, furnished with a detailed table of contents and copious index, and handsomely bound.

Old South Leaflets.

The Directors of the Old South Studies in History ask the attention of schools and of all students of American history to the Old South Leaflets. These leaflets are reprints of important original papers, accompanied by useful historical and bibliographical notes. They are edited by Mr. Edwin D. Mead. They consist, on an average, of sixteen pages, and are sold at the low price of five cents a copy or four dollars per hundred, simply enough to cover the cost of publication. The Old South Work, founded by Mrs. Mary Hemenway and still sustained by provision of her will, is a work for the education of the people, and especially the education of our young people, in American history and politics; and its promoters believe that few things can contribute better to this end than the wide circulation of such leaflets as these. The aim is to bring valuable historical documents often not easily accessible, within easy reach of everybody. It is hoped that professors in our colleges and teachers everywhere will welcome them for use in their classes, and that they may meet the needs of the societies of young men and women now being organized in so many places for historical and political studies. There are at present one hundred and fifty-one leaflets in the series, and others will rapidly follow. The following are the titles of those now ready:

1. The Constitution of the United States.
2. The Articles of Confederation.
3. The Declaration of Independence.
4. Washington's Farewell Address.
5. Magna Charta.
6. Vane's "Healing Question."
7. Charter of Massachusetts Bay, 1629.
8. Fundamental Orders of Connecticut, 1638.
9. Franklin's Plan of Union, 1754.
10. Washington's Inaugurals.
11. Lincoln's Inaugurals and Emancipation Proclamation.
12. The Federalist, Nos. 1 and 2.
13. The Ordinance of 1787.
14. The Constitution of Ohio.
15. Washington's Circular Letter to the Governors of the States, 1783.
16. Washington's Letter to Benjamin Harrison, 1784.
17. Verrazzano's Voyage.
18. The Swiss Constitution.
19. The Bill of Rights, 1689.
